[Ins. Act A1074:s.3]

2E. Electronic filing of books.

[Am. Act A1217:s.3]

- (1) The Commission may provide a service for the electronic filing, lodging or submission of books required by any of the provisions of the securities laws to be filed or lodged with or submitted to the Commission.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (2) A person who intends to use the service provided under subsection (1) shall become a subscriber to the service by paying the prescribed fee, if any, and by complying with such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Commission.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (3) Only a subscriber to the service provided under subsection (1), or such other person as the Commission may allow, may electronically file or lodge books with or submit books to the Commission.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (4) A book electronically filed, lodged or submitted under this section shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirement for filing, lodgement or submission if the book is communicated or transmitted to the Commission in such manner as may be specified by the Commission.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (5) The Commission may specify the books that may be electronically filed, lodged or submitted.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (6) A book that is required to be stamped, signed or sealed shall, if it is to be electronically filed, lodged or submitted, be certified or authenticated in such manner as may be specified by the Commission.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]
- (7) A copy of or an extract from any book electronically filed or lodged with submitted to the Commission under subsection (1) , supplied or issued by the Commission and certified to be a true copy thereof or extract therefrom by any officer authorized by the Commission, shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings as of equal validity as the original book.
[Am. Act A1217:s.3]

- (8) Where a book is electronically filed or lodged with or submitted to the Commission, the Commission or its authorized agents shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by any person by reason of any error or omission, of whatever nature or however arising, appearing in any book obtained by any person under the service referred to in subsection (1) if such error or omission was made in good faith and in the ordinary course of the discharge of the duties of the Commission or of its authorized agents or occurred or arose as a result of any defect or breakdown in the service or in the equipment used for the provision of the service.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.3; Am. Act A1217:s.3]

2F. Power of Commission to specify form and manner of keeping or maintaining books.

- (1) Where under any of the provisions of the securities laws any person is required, or power is given to the Commission to require any person, to keep or maintain any book, the Commission may specify the form and manner in which such book is to be kept or maintained.
- (2) The person referred to in subsection (1) shall take all reasonable precautions, including such precautions as may be specified by the Commission, to prevent damage to, or destruction or falsification of, such book.

[Ins. Act A1217:s.4]

2G. Power of Commission to access books kept or maintained otherwise than in writing.

- (1) Where under any of the provisions of the securities laws, power is given to the Commission to allow the Commission to inspect and make copies of or take extracts from any book required under any of the provisions of the securities laws to be kept or maintained, the Commission shall have access to the book and may—
- (a) obtain clear reproductions in writing; or
 - (b) copy or move it to a storage or recording device.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the Commission may require any person involved in the compilation of the book, or in the storing or recording of the book in a storage or recording device, to make a statement providing an explanation of how to secure access to the book.

[Ins. Act A1217:s.4]

2H. Power of Commission to require production, etc. of books kept or maintained otherwise than in writing.

The monies of the Audit Oversight Board Fund shall, in so far as they are not required to be expended under this Part, be invested by the Commission in such manner as the Commission deems fit.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31L. Annual report and accounts.

- (1) The Audit Oversight Board shall, within three months after the end of each financial year, prepare a report on its activities during that financial year and send a copy of the report to the Commission.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the report shall provide—
- (a) the assessment of the Audit Oversight Board of its performance and effectiveness in discharging its responsibilities under section 31E;
 - (b) an assessment of significant risks relating to the quality and reliability of financial statements of public interest entities as identified by the Audit Oversight Board in the course of its inspection and inquiries, and key measures recommended by the Audit Oversight Board to address such risks;
 - (c) the systems, procedures and practices used by the Audit Oversight Board for evaluating the effectiveness of its operations; and
 - (d) any other matter affecting the carrying out of the functions of the Audit Oversight Board.
- (3) The Commission shall cause a copy of the annual report to be submitted to the Minister.
- (4) The Commission shall keep proper accounts of the Audit Oversight Board Fund and shall prepare the statement of accounts in respect of such accounts.
[Am. Act A1403:s.10]
- (5) The accounts of the Audit Oversight Board Fund shall be kept separate from the accounts of the Commission as provided under section 29.
- (6) The Commission shall cause the statement of accounts of the Audit Oversight Board Fund to be audited by auditors appointed by the Commission.
- (7) The Commission shall, as soon as possible, send a copy of the statement of accounts of the Audit Oversight Board Fund certified by the auditors and a copy of the auditor's report to the Minister who shall cause them to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.
[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31M. Statutory Bodies (Accounts and Annual Reports) Act 1980.

The Statutory Bodies (Accounts and Annual Reports) Act 1980 [Act 240] shall not apply to the Audit Oversight Board.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

DIVISION 4

Registration or Recognition as Auditor of Public Interest Entity

[Am. Act A1403:s.11]

31N. Requirement for registration or recognition as auditor of public interest entity.

(1) No person shall, unless he is registered as registered auditor or recognised as a recognised auditor under this Division—

[Am. Act A1403:s.12]

- (a) hold himself out or act as an auditor of a public interest entity;
- (b) knowingly consents to be appointed and knowingly acts as an auditor of a public interest entity; or
- (c) prepare for or on behalf of a public interest entity any report required by the Companies Act 1965 to be prepared by an auditor.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31O. Application for registration, renewal of registration and recognition as auditor of public interest entity.

(1) For the purposes of this Act, an application for—

- (a) registration or renewal of registration as a registered auditor; or
- (b) recognition as a recognised auditor,

shall be made to the Audit Oversight Board.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.13]

(2) The application under subsection (1)—

- (a) shall be made in the form as may be determined by the Audit Oversight Board; and
- (b) shall be accompanied with—
 - (i) the fees as may be prescribed by the Commission; and

- (ii) such information or documents as may be required by the Audit Oversight Board.
- (3) Subject to section 31P, the Audit Oversight Board may–
 - (a) approve or refuse the registration of an applicant as a registered auditor or the renewal of registration of a registered auditor; or
 - (b) approve or refuse the grant of recognition of an applicant as a recognised auditor.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.13]

- (4) The Audit Oversight Board may, upon the–
 - (a) registration of an applicant as a registered auditor;
 - (b) renewal of registration of a registered auditor; or
 - (c) grant of recognition of an applicant as a recognised auditor, impose such conditions as it deems necessary or expedient and from time to time amend any such conditions or impose new or additional conditions.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.13]

- (5) The Audit Oversight Board shall serve a written notice to the auditor concerned of the amendment of any conditions imposed under subsection (4), and such conditions as amended or such new or additional conditions shall take effect at the time the notice is served or at such time as specified in the notice, whichever is the later.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am. Act A1403:s.13]

31P. Refusal to register, renew registration or grant recognition.

- (1) The Audit Oversight Board may refuse the registration of an applicant or the renewal of registration of a registered auditor if the Audit Oversight Board is satisfied that the applicant or the registered auditor–
 - (a) is not or has ceased to be an auditor approved under section 8 of the Companies Act 1965;
 - (b) has been convicted–
 - (i) within or outside Malaysia, of an offence involving fraud or other dishonesty;

[Am. Act A1403:s.14]

- (ii) of an offence under any written law relating to the protection of members of the public against financial loss due to–
 - (A) dishonesty, incompetence or malpractice by persons concerned in the provision of financial services or the management of companies; or
 - (B) the conduct of discharged or undischarged bankrupts;
 - (c) has engaged in any practices which reflect discredit on his ability to meet professional auditing standards;
 - (d) is an undischarged bankrupt within or outside Malaysia;
 - (e) is subject to a sanction imposed under section 31Z; or
 - (f) has failed to comply with any other requirements of this Part or any written notices or guidelines made under this Act.
- (1A) The Audit Oversight Board may refuse to recognise an applicant as a recognised auditor if the Audit Oversight Board is satisfied that the applicant–
- (a) falls within paragraph (1)(b), (c), (d) or (f);
 - (b) has been subject to any sanction imposed by any relevant foreign authority;
 - (c) has not been approved by a relevant foreign authority to prepare audited financial statements; or
 - (d) is not supervised by a relevant foreign authority.
- [Ins. Act A1403:s.14]
- (2) Where the Audit Oversight Board refuses–
- (a) the registration of an applicant as a registered auditor;
 - (b) the renewal of registration of a registered auditor; or
 - (c) to grant recognition of an applicant as a recognised auditor, the Audit Oversight Board shall give the applicant or the registered auditor an opportunity to be heard by serving a written notice on the applicant or the registered auditor stating the grounds for such refusal.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Subs. Act A1403:s.14]

(3) [Deleted] [Del. Act A1403:s.14]

31Q. Power to revoke, withdraw or suspend registration or recognition.

- (1) The Audit Oversight Board may, at any time—
- (a) revoke or suspend the registration; or
 - (b) withdraw or suspend the recognition,
- of an auditor if—
- (A) there exists a ground on which the Audit Oversight Board may refuse an application under subsection 31P(1) or (1A); or
 - (B) the auditor contravenes any terms or conditions imposed by the Audit Oversight Board in respect of his registration or recognition under this Part.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.15]

(2) The suspension under subsection (1) may be extended or revoked at any time by the Audit Oversight Board as it considers appropriate.

(3) Where the Audit Oversight Board intends to—

- (a) revoke or suspend the registration; or
- (b) withdraw or suspend the recognition,

under subsection (1) or (2), it shall give the auditor an opportunity to be heard by serving a written notice to the auditor concerned stating the grounds for such revocation, suspension or withdrawal.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.15]

(4) [Deleted] [Del. Act A1403:s.15]

(5) For the purposes of this Part, an auditor whose registration has been revoked or suspended or whose recognition has been withdrawn or suspended, as the case may be, shall be deemed not to be registered or recognized as an auditor from the date the revocation, withdrawal or suspension takes effect or any other date as may be specified by the Audit Oversight Board.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Subs. Act A1403:s.15]

31R. Notification of refusal, revocation or suspension.

Where an auditor falls within the scope of subsection 31P(1) or (1A), or paragraph 31Q(1)(bb) he shall, immediately upon becoming aware of the happening of such event, notify the Audit Oversight Board in writing by setting out the relevant particulars.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am. Act A1403:s.16]

31S. Period of registration.

(1) The registration under subsection 31O(3) shall be for a period of twelve months from the date of its approval or from such date as may be specified by the Audit Oversight Board in writing.

(2) The registration of a registered auditor may be renewed for a further period of twelve months or such period as may be specified by the Audit Oversight Board from the date on which the renewal period would have expired.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am Act A1403:s.17]

31T. Register of auditors.

(1) The Audit Oversight Board shall keep and maintain a Register of Auditors in such form and manner as it thinks fit.

(2) There shall be removed from the Register the name and other particulars of any auditor who ceases to be registered or recognised under this Part.

[Am. Act A1403:s.18]

(3) Any person may, upon payment of the prescribed fees, inspect and take extracts from the Register kept and maintained under subsection (1).

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

DIVISION 5

Setting Auditing and Ethical Standards

31U. Auditing and ethical standards.

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Audit Oversight Board shall adopt the auditing and ethical standards to be complied by an auditor to the extent and in such manner it considers appropriate.

- (2) For the purposes of setting auditing and ethical standards, the Audit Oversight Board may convene or authorise its staff to convene such advisory committees as may be appropriate, which may include accountants and other experts, as well as other stakeholders, to assist the Audit Oversight Board concerning the content of the auditing and ethical standards.
- (3) The Audit Oversight Board may direct the Malaysian Institute of Accountants to establish or amend the auditing and ethical standards to be complied by an auditor.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

DIVISION 6

Inspection and Inquiry

31V. Inspection.

- (1) The Audit Oversight Board shall, from time to time, conduct inspections to assess–
 - (a) the degree of compliance with the auditing and ethical standards by an auditor; and
 - (b) the quality of audit reports prepared by an auditor relating to the audited financial statements of public interest entities.
- (2) The inspections under subsection (1) shall be carried out by any officers of the Audit Oversight Board or any person authorised by the Audit Oversight Board who is referred to as an “Inspection Officer” in this Division.
- (3) The auditor, its partners and employees shall co-operate with an Inspection Officer, conducting an inspection under this section, in the following matters:
 - (a) providing access to all books, accounts, working paper or other related documents;
 - (b) furnishing copies of or extracts from such books, accounts, working papers or other related documents; and
 - (c) providing information by oral interview, in writing or in any other manner as may be determined or required by an Inspection Officer.

- (4) At the conclusion of the inspection made under this section, the Inspection Officer shall prepare a draft inspection report and a copy of that draft report shall be extended to the auditor concerned.
- (5) The Audit Oversight Board shall forthwith discuss the findings of the inspection report with the auditor concerned and after taking into account the representations made by the auditor, the Inspection Officer shall finalise the draft inspection report.
- (6) The auditor concerned shall, immediately, report to the Audit Oversight Board all remedial measures which have been or are being taken relating to any findings raised in the inspection report.
- (7) The Audit Oversight Board may publish the inspection report referred to in subsection (5) if the auditor fails to take the relevant remedial measures under subsection (6).

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31W. Inquiry.

- (1) If the Audit Oversight Board is satisfied, , that there is a reason to believe that any auditor–
 - (a) has contravened any provisions of this Part; or
 - (b) has breached or fails to comply with–
 - (i) any condition imposed under subsection 31O(4);
or
 - (ii) any written notice or guidelines issued by the Commission,

[Am. Act A1403:s.19]

the Audit Oversight Board shall inquire into such matter.

- (2) The inquiry under subsection (1) shall be carried out by any officers of the Audit Oversight Board or any person authorised by the Audit Oversight Board who is referred to as an “Inquiry Officer” in this Division.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31X. Power to require information.

- (1) For the purposes of an inquiry, an Inquiry Officer may, by notice in writing served on a person, require such person–

- (a) to provide all reasonable assistance in connection with the inquiry; and
 - (b) to appear before him or other Inquiry Officers concerned to be examined orally.
- (2) Any statement made by any person under this section shall be reduced into writing by the Inquiry Officer, and signed by the person making it or affixed with his thumb print after such statement has been read to him and after he had been given an opportunity to make any correction he may wish.
- (3) If the person referred to in subsection (2) refuses to sign or affix his thumb print on the statement, the Inquiry Officer shall endorse on the statement under his hand of such refusal and the reason thereof, if any.
- (4) A person referred to in subsection (1) shall be legally bound—
 - (a) to give information relevant to the inquiry which is in his power to give;
 - (b) to answer all questions put to him by the Inquiry Officer; and
 - (c) to state the truth, whether or not the statement is made wholly or partly, in answer to questions.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Inquiry Officer examining the person may give directions on who may be present during the examination or during any part of it.
- (6) Any statement made and recorded under this section shall be admissible as evidence in any proceeding in any court.
- (7) Any person to whom a notice is issued under subsection (1) shall not—
 - (a) refuse to answer any question put to him by an Inquiry Officer as required under subsection (4) or neglects to give any information which may reasonably be required of him and which he has in his power to give; or
 - (b) knowingly furnish to an Inquiry Officer information or statement which is false or misleading in any material particular.
- (8) For the purposes of this Division, any notice which is given shall, if practicable, be served personally on any person specified in such notice.
- (9) Where any person specified in a notice given under this section or any other provisions of this Division cannot by the exercise of due diligence be found, the notice may be served by leaving a copy of it for him with some adult member of his family or with his servant residing with him.

- (10) When any person specified in any notice given under this section or any other provision of this Division cannot by the exercise of due diligence be found, and service cannot be effected as directed by subsection (8) or (9), a copy of the notice shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or such other place in which the person specified in the notice ordinarily resides, and in such case the notice shall be deemed to have been duly served.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am. Act A1403:s.20]

31Y. Inspection and inquiry of consolidated financial statements.

For the purposes of this Division and, in the case of consolidated financial statements of public interest entities, the powers conferred on the Audit Oversight Board and its officers, or persons authorised by the Audit Oversight Board to inspect or to inquire into such financial statements shall apply relating to the accounts, working papers and documents prepared by the auditors of the subsidiaries, associates or any other entities whose financial statements are consolidated into such public interest entities.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am. Act A1403:s.21]

DIVISION 7

Sanctions

31Z. Sanctions.

- (1) Where any person contravenes or fails to comply with, observe, enforce or give effect to any of the following, that person has committed a breach:
- (a) any provisions of this Part;
 - (b) any conditions imposed under subsection 31O(4); or
 - (c) any written notice or guidelines imposed or issued by the Commission.
- (2) Where a person has committed a breach under subsection (1), the Audit Oversight Board may take one or more of the following actions:
- (a) direct the person concerned to comply with the provisions of this Part or any conditions imposed under subsection 31O(4), or any written notice or guidelines issued by the Commission;

- (b) reprimand the person concerned;
 - (c) require the person concerned to take such steps, as the Audit Oversight Board may direct, to remedy the breach;
 - (d) require relevant professional education to be undertaken by the person concerned;
 - (e) assign a reviewer to oversee an audit that is undertaken by the person concerned;
 - (f) prohibit the person concerned from accepting any public interest entity as its client for a period not exceeding twelve months;
 - (g) prohibit the person concerned from auditing financial statements of a public interest entity for a period not exceeding twelve months or permanently; and
 - (h) impose a penalty not exceeding five hundred thousand ringgit on the person concerned.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Audit Oversight Board may require any person who has committed a breach under subsection (1) to give a written undertaking that such person shall comply with, observe, enforce or give effect to—
- (a) the provision of this Part;
 - (b) any conditions imposed under subsection 31O(4); or
 - (c) any written notice or guidelines imposed or issued by the Commission.
- (4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to any person who has committed a breach under subsection (1) and has been prohibited from auditing financial statements of a public interest entity permanently pursuant to paragraph 2(g).
- (5) The Audit Oversight Board shall not take any action under subsection (2) without giving the person concerned an opportunity to be heard.
- (6) Where the person concerned fails to pay the penalty imposed under paragraph (2)(h), such penalty may be sued for and recovered as a debt due to the Commission.

- (7) Any monies obtained from the penalty imposed under paragraph (2)(h), shall be utilised to plan and implement capacity building programmes relating to the accounting and auditing profession.
- (8) Where on an application by the Commission, it appears to the court that the person who has committed a breach under subsection (1) has failed to comply with any action taken by the Audit Oversight Board under subsection (2) or (3), the court may make an order directing such person to comply with such direction, requirement or terms of undertaking issued by the Audit Oversight Board.
- (9) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Commission or any other relevant authorities from taking any other action which they may take under their respective written laws or by-laws.

DIVISION 8

General

31ZA. [Deleted].

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Del. Act A1403:s.22]

31ZB. Appeal.

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Audit Oversight Board under subsection 31P(1) or (1A) , section 31Q or subsection 31Z(2) may appeal in writing to the Commission within thirty days from the date on which such person is notified of the decision of the Audit Oversight Board.
[Am. Act A1403:s.23]
- (2) The Commission shall determine its own procedures in hearing an appeal under this Part.
- (3) For the purposes of an appeal under this Part, the Commission may—
 - (a) affirm the determination of the Audit Oversight Board;
 - (b) set aside the determination of the Audit Oversight Board; or
 - (c) substitute for the determination of the Audit Oversight Board its own determination.

- (4) The Commission shall decide on an appeal within a period of three months from the date the appeal is made.
- (5) Where there is an appeal against the decision of the Audit Oversight Board under this section, the decision of the Audit Oversight Board under subsection 31P(1) or (1A), section 31Q or subsection 31Z(2) shall not take effect until the appeal is disposed of.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4] [Am. Act A1403:s.23]

31ZC. Duty to report to relevant authorities.

Notwithstanding section 148, the Audit Oversight Board shall report to the relevant authorities if it becomes aware of any breach of any law or code of conduct which is administered by the relevant authorities.

[Ins. Act A1369:s.4]

31ZD. Co-operation and co-ordination.

- (1) For the purposes of promoting confidence in the quality and reliability of audited financial statements, the Commission may–
 - (a) enter into arrangements to co-operate with relevant authorities or relevant foreign authorities; and
 - (b) obtain any information or document from or share the same with any relevant authorities or relevant foreign authorities if the Commission considers it necessary to do so.
- (2) Notwithstanding sections 31V and 31W, the Audit Oversight Board may, with regard to a recognised auditor, request for assistance from a relevant foreign authority to conduct inspection or inquire into the conduct of a recognised auditor to assess–
 - (a) the degree of compliance with auditing and ethical standards adopted by the relevant foreign authority by the recognised auditor; and
 - (b) the quality of audit reports prepared by the recognised auditor relating to audited financial statements.

PART V
ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATION

125. Appointment of Investigating Officers of the Commission.

[Am. Act A1074:s.10]

- (1) The Commission may appoint such number of investigating officers to be known as Investigating Officers of the Commission as it considers necessary for the purposes of carrying out investigation of any offence under the securities laws.

[Am. Act A1041:s.3] [Am. Act A1305:s.8]

- (2) An Investigating Officer of the Commission appointed under subsection (1) shall have all the powers given to any person for the purposes of carrying out investigation of any offence under the securities law.

[Am. Act A1041:s.3][Am. Act A1305:s.8]

126. Examination by Commission.

[Am. Act A1074:s.11][Am. Act A1305:s.9]

- (1) The Commission may, from time to time, examine, without giving any prior notice, the books or other documents, accounts and transactions of–

(a) an exchange holding company;

(b) a stock exchange;

(c) an approved clearing house;

(d) a derivatives exchange;

[Subs. Act A1403:s.25]

(e) a licensed person;

[Am. Act A1403:s.25]

(f) a registered person other than registered persons specified in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007; and

[Ins. Act A1403:s.25]

(g) any other person engaging in regulated activities or providing capital market services as may be specified by the Commission.

[Subs. Act A1305:s.9] [Ins. Act A1403:s.25]

- (2) Any person and any of the servants or agents of such person shall, on being required by the Commission so to do, produce any documents, records or matter referred to in subsection (1);

[Subs. Act A1305:s.9]

- (3) For the purposes of this section and section 127, "person" means any person listed under paragraphs (1)(a) to (e).

[Ins. Act A1305:s.9]

127. Production of books, etc.

[Am. Act A1074:s.12] [Am. Act A1305:s.10]

- (1) For the purposes of an examination under section 126, a person under examination, its directors and officers shall accord any person carrying out the examination access to all its books or other documents and accounts, including documents of title to its assets, all securities held by it in respect of securities transactions, all its cash, and all such documents, information and facilities as may be required by that person who carries out the examination, and shall produce to that person who carries out the examination all such books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash, and give all such information, as he may require, but so far as is consistent with the conduct of the examination, such books or documents, accounts, titles, securities and cash shall not be required to be produced at such times or at such places as may interfere with the proper conduct of the normal daily business of that person;

[Subs. Act A1305:s.10]

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any person authorized by the Commission in writing for this purpose may take possession of any books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash to which he has access under subsection (1) if in his opinion—
- (a) the inspection of them, the copying of them, or the making of extracts from them cannot reasonably be undertaken without taking possession of them;
 - (b) they may be interfered with or destroyed unless he takes possession of them; or
 - (c) they may be needed as evidence in any legal proceedings, whether civil or criminal, which may be instituted under or in connection with any securities law or any other written law.

- (3) No person and no director or officer of the person shall—
- (a) fail to allow access to, give possession of or produce, its books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash; or
 - (b) fail to give information or facilities in accordance with subsections (1) and (2).

[Ins. Act A1041:s.4] [Am. Act A1305:s.10]

128. Powers of the Investigating Officers of the Commission.

[Am. Act A1074:s.13]

- (1) An Investigating Officer of the Commission carrying out an investigation may enter any place or building and may—
- (a) inspect and make copies of or take extracts from any book, minute book, account, register or document;
 - (b) where he has reason to believe that an offence has been committed against a securities law, search for, seize, take possession of and detain any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document including any travel or other personal document, which may be used as evidence;
- [Am. Act A1305:s.11]
- (c) search any person who is in, or on, the premises and, for the purpose of such search, detain the person and remove him to such place as may be necessary to facilitate the search, and seize, take possession of and detain any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document, including any travel or other personal document found on the person; and
- [Am. Act A1305:s.11]
- (d) detain all or any persons found on the premises searched under this subsection until such premises have been searched;
- [Ins. Act A1305:s.11]
- (2) An Investigating Officer of the Commission may search any person whom he has reason to believe has on his person any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document including any travel or other personal document necessary, in his opinion, for the purpose of investigation into any offence under any securities law, and for the purpose of such search may detain the person for such period as may be necessary to have the search carried out, which shall not in any case exceed twenty-four hours without the authorization of the Magistrate, and may remove him into custody at such place as may be necessary to facilitate the search.

- (3) An Investigating Officer of the Commission making a search of a person under subsection (1) or (2) may seize, take possession of and detain any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document including any travel or other personal document found upon such person for the purpose of the investigation being carried out by him.
- (4) No female person shall be searched under this section except by another female person.
- (5) An Investigating Officer of the Commission may by notice in writing require any person to produce to him such object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document as are in the custody or under the control of that person.
- (6) An Investigating Officer of the Commission may seize, take possession of and detain for such duration as he deems necessary any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register or other document produced before him as required under subsection (5) .
- (7) A person who—
 - (a) refuses an Investigating Officer of the Commission, while exercising his powers under this Part, access to any premises or part thereof, or fails to submit to the search of his person;
 - (b) assaults, obstructs, hinders or delays an Investigating Officer of the Commission in effecting any entrance which he is entitled to effect;
 - (c) fails to comply with any lawful demands of an Investigating Officer of the Commission in the execution of his duties under this Part; or
 - (d) rescues or endeavours to rescue any thing which has been duly seized, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or both.

- (8) An Investigating Officer of the Commission may grant permission to any person to inspect any book, minute book, account, register or other document seized and taken possession of by the Investigating Officer of the Commission under this section if such person is entitled to inspect such book, minute book, account, register or other document under the securities laws.

[Am. Act A1305:s.11]

- (9) Subsection (1) shall not be construed as limiting or affecting any similar powers conferred on any person under any other law.

[Subs. Act A1074:s.13]

129. Procedure by Investigating Officer on seizure property.

[Am. Act A1074:s.14]

- (1) A list of all things seized in the course of an inspection or investigation made under this Part and of the place or building in which they are respectively found shall be prepared by the Investigating Officer of the Commission conducting the inspection and signed by him.

[Am. Act A1074:s.14]

- (2) The occupant of the place or building entered under subsection 128(1), or some person in his behalf, shall in every instance be permitted to attend during the inspection, and a copy of the list prepared and signed under subsection (1) shall be delivered to such occupant or person at his request.

[Am. Act A1074:s.14]

- (3) An Investigating Officer of the Commission shall, unless otherwise ordered by any court, on the close of investigations or any proceedings arising there from, release any property seized, detained or removed by him or any other Investigating Officer of the Commission, to such person as he determines to be lawfully entitled to the property, if he is satisfied that it is not required for the purpose of any prosecution or proceedings under any securities law, or for the purpose of any prosecution under any other written law.

- (4) A record in writing shall be made by the Investigating Officer of the Commission who releases any property under subsection (3) in respect of such release specifying therein the circumstances of, and the reason for, such release.

- (5) Where the Investigating Officer of the Commission is unable to determine the person who is lawfully entitled to the property or where there is more than one claimant to such property, the Investigating Officer of the Commission shall report the matter to a Magistrate who shall then order that the property be dealt with as provided for in section 130.

[Am. Act A1074:s.14]

- (6) For the purpose of this section and of sections 130 and 131, "property" includes books and other documents.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.6, Am. Act A1074:s.14]

130. Procedure by Magistrate in respect of property seized.

[Am. Act A1074:s.15]

- (1) Where a report is forwarded to the Magistrate by an Investigating Officer of the Commission under subsection 129(5), the Magistrate shall make such order as he thinks fit respecting the delivery of such property to the person entitled to the possession of the property or, if such person cannot be ascertained, respecting the custody and production of such property.

[Am. Act A1074:s.15]

- (2) If the person entitled to the property is known, the Magistrate may order the property to be delivered to him on such conditions, if any, as the Magistrate thinks fit, and shall, if he makes such order, cause a notice to be served on such person informing the person of the terms of the order and requiring him to take delivery of the property within such period from the date of the service of the notice (not being less than forty-eight hours) as the Magistrate may in such notice prescribe.

- (3) If the person to whom property has been ordered to be delivered under subsection (2) neglects or omits to take delivery of such property within the period prescribed, the Magistrate may, where such property is subject to speedy and natural decay or where in his opinion its value is less than fifty ringgit, direct that such property be sold and the net proceeds of such sale shall, on demand, be paid over to the person entitled thereto.

- (4) If the person entitled to the possession of such property is absent from Malaysia and the property is subject to speedy and natural decay or the Magistrate to whom its seizure is reported is of the opinion that its sale would be for the benefit of the owner or that the value of such property is less than fifty ringgit, the Magistrate may, at any time, direct it to be sold and subsection 131(4) shall apply to the net proceeds of such sale.

[Am. Act A1074:s.15]

- (5) If the person entitled to the property is unknown, the Magistrate may direct that the property be detained in the custody of the Investigating Officer of the Commission.

- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), if the person entitled to the property is unknown and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such property is of no appreciable value, or that its value is so small as, in the opinion of the Magistrate, to render impracticable the sale, as provided in section 131, of such property or as to make its detention in the custody of the Investigating Officer of the Commission unreasonable in view of the expense or inconvenience that would thereby be involved, the Magistrate may order such property to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, either on the expiration of such period after the publication of the notification referred to in subsection 131(1) as he may determine or forthwith as he thinks fit.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.6, Am. Act A1074:s.15]

131. Procedure in respect of property detained in Investigating Officer's custody.

[Am. Act A1074:s.16]

- (1) Where a Magistrate has directed under subsection 130(5) that any property seized be detained in the custody of an Investigating Officer of the Commission, the Chairman acting on behalf of the Commission, shall issue a public notification specifying the articles of which the property consists and requiring any person who has any claim to make a claim within six months from the date of such public notification.

[Am. Act A1074:s.15]

- (2) Every notification under subsection (1) shall, if the property has a value of fifty ringgit or more, be published in the Gazette.

- (3) If within three months from the publication of a notification under subsection (1) no person establishes a claim to such property, and if the person in whose possession such property was found is unable to show that it was legally acquired by him, such property may, after the expiration of such period of three months, be sold on the order of the Chairman acting on behalf of the Commission.

- (4) If within six months from the publication of a notification under subsection (1) no person has established a claim to such property, the ownership of such property, or, if sold, of the net proceeds of such sale, shall upon the expiration of such period of six months pass to and become vested in the Federal Government.

- (5) Where the property referred to in subsection (1) is subject to speedy and natural decay or the Chairman acting on behalf of the Commission is of the opinion that its value is less than fifty ringgit or where its custody involves unreasonable expense and inconvenience, such property may be sold at any time, and subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of such sale as they apply to the property.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.6]

132. Surrender of travel documents.

[Am. Act A1074:s.17]

- (1) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, if an Investigating Officer of the Commission has grounds to believe that any person, who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under a securities law suspected to have been committed by such person, is likely to leave Malaysia, the Investigating Officer of the Commission, with the approval of the Commission, may by written notice require such person to surrender his certificate of identity, passport or exit permit, or any other travel document in his possession.

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) shall be served in the manner specified in section 134.

[Subs. Act A1074:s.17]

- (3) A person on whom a notice under subsection (1) is served shall comply with such notice forthwith, failing which he may be arrested and taken before a Magistrate.

- (4) Where a person is taken before a Magistrate under subsection (3), the Magistrate shall, unless such person complies with the notice under subsection (1) or satisfies the Magistrate that he does not possess a travel document, by warrant commit him to prison—

(a) until the expiry of a period of fourteen days from the date of his committal; or

(b) until he complies with the notice under subsection (1), whichever occurs earlier.

- (5) For the purpose of subsection (4), a certificate signed by the Public Prosecutor to the effect that the person has complied with the notice under subsection (1) shall be sufficient warrant for the Superintendent of Prison to discharge such person.

- (6) An Investigating Officer of the Commission may, with the approval of the Commission, by notice issued to any Immigration Officer, request that any person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under a securities law be prevented from leaving Malaysia.

[Subs. Act A1074:s.17]

- (7) The Immigration Officer, upon being notified of a request made under subsection (6), may require the person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under a securities law to surrender his certificate of identity, passport or exit permit, or any other travel document in his possession to the Immigration Officer.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.17]

(8) Subject to any order issued or made under any written law relating to banishment or immigration, "immigration officer" means any person appointed under section 3 of the Immigration Act 1959/63 [Act 155].

[Ins. Act A1074:s.17]

(9) No legal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the Government, an immigration officer, an officer of the Commission, a public officer or any other person, in respect of anything done under this section.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.17]

133. Forcible entry.

[Am. Act A1074:s.18]

(1) For the purpose of exercising his powers under paragraph 128(1)(b) an Investigating Officer of the Commission may enter any place or building by force, if necessary.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no Investigating Officer of the Commission shall enter any premises by the use of force without a search warrant by a Magistrate unless he has reasonable grounds for believing that, by reason of the delay in obtaining a search warrant, any object, article, material, thing, accounts, book, or other document referred to in paragraph 128(1)(b) may be interfered with or destroyed or the object of any entry is likely to be frustrated.

[Am. Act A1074:s.18]

134. Power to call for examination.

[Am. Act A1074:s.19]

(1) If an Investigating Officer of the Commission carrying out an investigation under any securities law suspects or believes on reasonable grounds that any person can give information relevant to a matter that he is investigating, the Investigating Officer of the Commission may by notice in writing to such person require such person—

(a) to give to the Investigating Officer of the Commission all reasonable assistance in connection with the investigation; and

(b) to appear before a specified Investigating Officer of the Commission or specified Investigating Officers of the Commission to be examined orally.

[Subs. Act A1041:s.7]

- (1A) An Investigating Officer of the Commission exercising his authority under paragraph (1)(b) shall reduce into writing any statement made by the person examined under subsection (1).

[Ins. Act A1041:s.7]

- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) shall be legally bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him by the Investigating Officer of the Commission and to state the truth, whether or not the statement is made wholly or partly in answer to questions, and shall not refuse to answer any question on the ground that it tends to incriminate him.

[Am. Act A1074:s.19]

- (3) A statement made by any person under this section shall be taken down in writing or recorded and subsequently taken down in writing and signed by the person making it or affixed with his thumb print, as the case may be, after it has been read to him and after he had been given an opportunity to make any correction he may wish:

[Am. Act A1305:s.12]

Provided that, where the person examined refuses to sign or affix his thumb print on the statement, the Investigating Officer of the Commission shall endorse thereon under his hand the fact of such refusal and the reason therefor, if any, stated by the person examined.

- (3A) In an examination of a person under subsection (1), an Investigating Officer of the Commission or Investigating Officers of the Commission examining the person may do any one or both of the following:

- (a) give directions about who may be present during the examination, or during any part of it;
- (b) record the examination or any part of it by audio or visual recording or a combination of both.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.7, Subs Act A1074:s.19][Subs Act A1403:s.26]

- (4) Any statement made and recorded under this section shall be admissible as evidence in any proceeding in any Court.

- (5) Any person who—

- (a) fails to appear before an Investigating Officer of the Commission as required under subsection (1);
- (b) refuses to answer any question put to him by an Investigating Officer of the Commission as required under subsection (2) or neglects to give any information which may reasonably be required of him and which he has in his power to give;

[Am Act A1074:s.19][Am. Act A1305:s.12]

- (c) knowingly furnishes to an Investigating Officer of the Commission information or statement that is false or misleading in any material particular;

[Am. Act A1305:s.12]

- (d) obstructs an Investigating Officer of the Commission in carrying out an investigation under this section,

[Ins. Act A1305:s.12]

shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or both.

[Am. Act A1041:s.7, Am Act A1074:s.19]

- (6) For the purposes of this section and any other provision of Part V, any notice that is given shall, if practicable, be served personally on the person specified in such notice.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19]

- (7) In the case of a corporation, the notice may be served on the secretary or other like officer of the corporation or on any person who is responsible for the management of the affairs of the corporation.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19]

- (8) Where the person specified in a notice given under this section or any other provision of Part V cannot by the exercise of due diligence be found, the notice may be served by leaving a copy thereof for him with some adult member of his family or with his servant residing with him.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19]

- (9) When the person specified in any notice given under this section or any other provision of Part V cannot by the exercise of due diligence be found, and service cannot be effected as directed by subsection (6) or (8), a copy of the notice shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or such other place in which the person specified in the notice ordinarily resides, and in such case the notice shall be deemed to have been duly served.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19][Am. Act A1403:s.26]

- (10) If upon an investigation made under the securities laws it appears to the Investigating Officer of the Commission that there is sufficient evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion to justify the commencement or continuance of any proceedings against any person, the Investigating Officer of the Commission shall require the complainant, if any, and so many of the persons who appear to such Investigating Officer of the Commission to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case as he thinks necessary, to execute a bond to appear before any Court therein named and to give evidence in such proceedings.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19][Am. Act A1305:s.12]

- (11) If any complainant or person referred to in subsection (10) refuses to execute a bond under that subsection, the Investigating Officer of the Commission shall report such refusal to the Court which may thereupon in its discretion issue a warrant or summons to secure the attendance of such complainant or person before itself to give evidence in the proceedings concerned.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.19]

135. Destruction, concealment, mutilation and alteration of records.

[Am. Act A1074:s.20]

Any person who—

- (a) destroys, conceals, mutilates or alters; or
- (b) sends or attempts to send or conspires with any other person to remove from his premises or send out of Malaysia, any record or account in his possession that is required to be produced under this Part with intent to defraud any person, or to prevent, delay or obstruct the carrying out of an examination, audit or investigation, or the exercise of any power under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding ten million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or both.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.8, Am. Act A1074:s.20]

PART VI
GENERAL

136. Conduct of prosecution.

[Am. Act A1074:s.21]

- (1) No prosecution for any offence under this Act shall be instituted except with the consent in writing of the Public Prosecutor.
- (2) [Deleted by Act A1041:s.9]

137. General penalty.

[Am. Act A1074:s.22]

- (1) Any person who contravenes a requirement or any provision of this Act shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Where no penalty is expressly provided for an offence under this Act, a person who is guilty of the offence shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or both; and in the case of a continuing offence, the offender, in addition to the penalty provided in this subsection, shall be punished with a daily fine not exceeding five thousand ringgit for every day during which the offence continues after conviction.

[Ins. Act A926:s.13, Am. Act A1074:s.22]

138. Offences by bodies corporate.

[Am. Act A1074:s.23]

- (1) Where a person convicted in respect of any offence under this Act is a body corporate, it shall only be punished with the fine provided for such offence.
- (2) Where an offence against this Act or any regulations made thereunder has been committed by a body corporate, any person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, a chief executive officer, an officer, an employee, a representative or the secretary of the body corporate or was purporting to act in such capacity, shall be deemed to have committed that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised, having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

- (3) Where a person who is an employee of a body corporate contravenes any provision of this Act, that body corporate shall be deemed to have contravened such provision.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, "officer", in relation to a director of a corporation, includes—
 - (a) a person occupying or acting in the position of a director of the corporation, by whatever name called, and whether or not validly appointed to occupy or duly authorized to act in the position;
 - (b) a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of the corporation are accustomed to act; and
 - (c) if the corporation is incorporated outside Malaysia—
 - (i) a member of the corporation's board;
 - (ii) a person occupying or acting in the position of director of the corporation's board, by whatever name called, and whether or not validly appointed to occupy or duly authorized to act in the position; and
 - (iii) a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the members of the corporation's board are accustomed to act.

[Ins. Act A926:s.13, Subs. Act A1074:s.23]

139. Compounding of offences.

[Am. Act A1074:s.24]

- (1) The Chairman of the Commission may, with the consent in writing of the Public Prosecutor, compound any offence under this Act or regulations made under this Act which is prescribed to be a compoundable offence by accepting from the person reasonably suspected of having committed such offence a sum of money not exceeding such amount as may be prescribed.
- (2) Upon receipt of the sum of money referred to in subsection (1), no further proceedings shall be taken against such person in respect of such offence and where possession has been taken of any property or document such property or document shall be released, subject to such conditions as may be imposed in accordance with the conditions of the compound.

[Am. Act A1074:s.24][Am. Act A1305:s.13]

- (3) All sums of money received under this section shall be paid into the Federal Consolidated Fund.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.10]

140. Protection of informers and information.

[Am. Act A1074:s.25]

- (1) Where any complaint made by an officer of the Commission states that the complaint is made in consequence of information received by the officer making the complaint, the information referred to in the complaint and the identity of the person from whom such information is received shall be secret between the officer who made the complaint and the person who gave the information, and everything contained in such information, the identity of the person who gave the information and all other circumstances relating to the information, including the place where it was given, shall not be disclosed or be ordered or required to be disclosed in any civil, criminal or other proceedings before any court, tribunal or other authority.
- (2) If any book, paper or other document, or any visual or sound recording, or other matter or material which is given in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil, criminal or other proceedings before any court, tribunal or other authority contains any entry or other matter in which any person who gave the information is named or described or shown, or which might lead to his discovery, the court, tribunal or authority before which the proceedings are held shall cause all parts thereof or passages therein to be concealed from view or to be obliterated or otherwise removed so far as is necessary to protect such person from discovery.
- (3) Any person who gives the information referred to in subsection (1) knowing that the information is false shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or to both.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to any investigation into, or prosecution of, any offence under subsection (3).

[Ins. Act A1041:s.10]

141. Offences under securities law are seizable offences.

[Am. Act A1074:s.26]

Every offence punishable under a securities law shall be a seizable offence, and a police officer not below the rank of Inspector, or an Investigating Officer of the Commission appointed under subsection 125(1), may arrest without warrant any person whom he reasonably suspects to have committed or to be committing any such offence.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.10, Am Act A1074:s.26]

142. Duty of Investigating Officer to make over arrested person to the police.

[Am. Act A1074:s.27]

If an Investigating Officer of the Commission appointed under subsection 125(1) makes an arrest under section 141 he shall without unnecessary delay make over the person so arrested to the nearest police officer or, in the absence of a police officer, take such person to the nearest police station, and thereafter the person arrested shall be dealt with in accordance with the law relating to criminal procedure for detention under section 117 of the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593] as if he had been arrested by a police officer.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.10, Am Act A1074:s.27]

143. Detention of arrested person.

[Am. Act A1074:s.28]

Notwithstanding any other provision in any other written law relating to criminal procedure, a Magistrate authorizing the detention of a person arrested under section 141 shall authorize the detention of the person arrested in the custody of the police.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.10, Am. Act A1074:s.28]

144. Public servants and public officers.

[Am. Act A1074:s.29]

- (1) All members of the Commission or any of its committees or any officer, servant or agent of the Commission while discharging their duties as such members, officers, servants or agents shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code [Act 574] and public officers for the purposes of the Evidence Act 1950 or any other written law which the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Public Prosecutor, prescribe.
- (2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1), an Investigating Officer of the Commission shall be deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code [Act 574], and a public officer for the purposes of the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593] and the Evidence Act 1950 or any other written law which the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Public Prosecutor, prescribe.

[Subs. Act A1074:s.29]

145. Power to engage persons to render assistance.

[Am. Act A1074:s.30]

The Commission may, either generally or in a particular matter, engage under such terms and conditions of engagement as the Commission may determine from time to time, any person who is not an officer of the Commission to render such assistance as the Commission may require or specify in connection with the performance of its functions, or the discharge of its duties under a securities law, or to perform or discharge the same on behalf of and in the name of the Commission.

[Subs. Act A926:s.14]

146. Power to review.

[Am. Act A1074:s.31]

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the securities laws, any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Commission may appeal to the Commission to review its own decision.

[Am. Act A1305:s.14] [Subs. Act A1403:s.27]

(2) An appeal to the Commission to review its own decision shall be made in writing within thirty days after the aggrieved person is notified of such decision.

[Am. Act A1403:s.27]

147. Decision of Minister or Commission to be final

[Am. Act A1074:s.32] [Am. Act A1403:s.28]

Except as otherwise provided in the securities laws—

(a) any decision made by the Minister under the securities laws, whether an original decision by him or a decision on appeal to him from a decision of the Commission; or

(b) any decision by the Commission under the securities laws made pursuant to an appeal to review its original decision, shall be final.

[Ins. Act A926:s.15, Am. Act A1074:s.32] [Am. Act A1305:s.15]

[Subs. Act A1403:s.28]

148. Obligation of secrecy.

[Am. Act A1074:s.33]

(1) Except for any of the purposes of the securities law or for the purpose of any civil or criminal proceedings under any written law or where otherwise authorized by the Commission or subject to section 124 of the Evidence Act 1950, any–

- (a) member of the Commission;
- (b) member of the Shariah Advisory Council;
- (c) member of the Audit Oversight Board;
- (d) member of any committees of the Commission, Shariah Advisory Council or Audit Oversight Board;
- (e) officer, servant or agent of the Commission; or
- (f) person attending any meeting of–
 - (i) the Commission;
 - (ii) any committees of the Commission;
 - (iii) Shariah Advisory Council; or
 - (iv) Audit Oversight Board, shall not disclose any information which has been obtained by him in the course of his duties and which is not published in pursuance of the securities laws.

[Subs. Act A1369:s.4]

- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

[Am. Act A1041:s.11]

149. Assistance to police or other public officer.

[Am. Act A1074:s.34]

Notwithstanding section 148, the Commission may, at its own initiative, or at the request of a public officer–

[Am. Act A1074:s.34]

- (a) supply to a police officer or any other public officer a copy of any book or other document seized, detained or taken possession of under section 128 or of any record of examination made under section 134, or of any statement made under subsection 134(3), or of any book or other document produced under subsection 128(2), or otherwise in the course of any examination under section 134, and such police officer or other public officer may make use of such copy of such book statement, record or other document as may be necessary or expedient in relation to the exercise of his powers, the performance of his functions, or the discharge of his duties, in respect of any person; or

[Am. Act A1074:s.34]

- (b) allow a police officer or any other public officer to have access to and inspect any property, book, other document, article or thing which had been produced before, or seized, detained or taken possession of by an Investigating Officer under the securities laws, and such police officer or other public officer may make such use of any knowledge gained by such access or inspection as may be necessary or expedient in relation to the exercise of his powers, the performance of his functions, or the discharge of his duties, in respect of any person.

[Ins. Act A926:s.16][Am. Act A1305:s.17]

150. Assistance to and co-operation with foreign supervisory authorities.

[Am. Act A1074:s.35]

- (1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the securities laws, the Commission may, upon receiving a written request from a foreign supervisory authority for assistance to investigate into an alleged breach of a legal or regulatory requirement which the foreign supervisory authority enforces or administers, provide assistance to the foreign supervisory authority by carrying out investigation of the alleged breach of the legal or regulatory requirement or provide such other assistance to the foreign supervisory authority as the Commission thinks fit.

[Subs. Act A1041:s.12][Am. Act A1305:s.18]

- (2) In this section, “foreign supervisory authority” means a foreign authority which exercises functions corresponding to the functions of the Commission under a securities law or any person outside Malaysia exercising regulatory functions and in respect of which the Commission considers desirable and necessary to render assistance in the interest of the public.

[Am. Act A1041:s.12]

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the provisions of Part V shall, with such adaptations as are necessary, apply and have effect accordingly as if the breach of the legal or regulatory requirement were an offence under a securities law.

[Ins. Act A1041:s.12]

- (4) In determining whether it is in the interest of the public to render assistance under subsection (1), the Commission shall have regard to—
 - (a) whether the foreign supervisory authority will pay to the Commission any costs and expenses incurred for providing the foreign supervisory authority with the assistance; and
 - (b) whether the foreign supervisory authority will be able and willing to provide reciprocal assistance within its jurisdiction in response to a comparable request for assistance from the Commission.
- [Ins. Act A926:s.16, Ins. Act A1041:s.12]

150A. Admissibility of evidence obtained through assistance from a foreign supervisory authority.

- (1) If an Investigating Officer of the Commission in the course of his investigation obtains evidence, oral or documentary, through assistance obtained from a foreign supervisory authority, such evidence shall be admissible as prima facie evidence.
- (2) In this section, a copy of a documentary evidence shall not be admissible in evidence unless the person who has custody or control of the document affirms that he has examined and verified the copy of that document with the original.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where the original document is not found or is lost, it shall be sufficient for the person who has custody or control of the document to state orally or in an affidavit given under this section that he had made reasonable efforts to locate the original documents and thereafter the copy of such documents shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of such documents in any legal proceedings.
- (4) The oral evidence referred to in subsection (1) shall be admissible as prima facie evidence if a person authorised by the foreign supervisory authority—
 - (a) records the oral evidence whether in writing, by means of audio or visual recording or a combination of both, affirms in an affidavit that the oral evidence so recorded was recorded from a person acquainted with the circumstances of the case and the recording of the oral evidence was made in accordance with the laws enforced or administered by the foreign supervisory authority; or

- (b) obtains an affidavit which is affirmed by a person acquainted with the circumstances of the case.

[Subs. Act A1403:s.29]

- (5) An affidavit under this section shall not be admissible as prima facie evidence unless it is sworn or affirmed–

[Am. Act A1403:s.29]

- (a) in the Republic of Singapore, before any Judge, District Judge, Assistant District Judge, Registrar, Deputy Registrar, police, Magistrate or before any person authorized to take affidavits by any written law in force in the Republic of Singapore;
- (b) in England, Scotland, Ireland or the Channel Islands or in any colony, island or place under the dominion or jurisdiction or protection of Her Britannic Majesty, before any Judge, Court, Notary Public or other person lawfully authorized to administer oaths; or
- (c) in any other place, before any officer exercising consular functions on behalf of Malaysia.

- (6) The court shall take judicial notice of the seal or signature, as the case may be, of any Judge, Court, Notary Public, Consul, Vice Consul, or other person whose seal or signature is appended or subscribed to any affidavit.

[Am. Act A1305:s.19]

150B. Admissibility of statements and documents of persons who are dead or cannot be traced, etc.

Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, in any proceedings against any person for an offence under the securities laws–

- (a) any statement made by any person to any Investigating Officer of the Commission in the course of an investigation under the securities laws; and
- (b) any document, or copy of any document, seized from any person by any Investigating Officer of the Commission in the exercise of his powers under or by virtue of the securities laws, shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings before any court, where the person who made the statement or document or the copy of the document, or the person from whom the document was seized, is dead, or cannot be traced or found, or has become incapable of giving evidence, or whose attendance cannot be procured without an amount of delay or expense which appears to the court unreasonable.

[Ins. Act A1403:s.30]

151. Power of Commission to require information.

[Am. Act A1074:s.36]

Where under the securities laws, power is given to the Commission to require any person, or where any person is required under the securities law, to submit to the Commission any information, document or book, the Commission may require that the same shall be submitted within such period, at such intervals, in such manner, in such form, and in writing or by means of any visual recording (whether of still or moving images) or sound recording, or any electronic, magnetic, mechanical or other recording whatsoever, on any substance, material, thing or article, as the Commission may set out in the specification.

[Ins. Act A926:s.16] [Am. Act A1305:s.20]

151A. Evidential provision.

In any criminal or civil proceedings under the securities laws, any statement purporting to be signed by the Chairman or any other person to whom power has been delegated under section 17, which forms part of or is annexed to any letter, register, record or document, howsoever expressed, described or represented, shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence of any fact stated therein.

[Ins. Act A1217:s.10]

152. Disclosure of information to Commission.

(1) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require any person to disclose to the Commission such information as the Commission may specify in the notice as it deems expedient for the due administration of the securities laws.

[Am. Act A1217:s.11]

(2) Where any information is required to be disclosed to the Commission under subsection (1) , the person to whom the notice is directed shall not–

- (a) disclose or cause to be disclosed any information that is false or misleading;
- (b) disclose or cause to be disclosed any information from which there is a material omission; or

- (c) engage in, or aid, or abet, conduct that is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive the Commission.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2) , where a person referred to in subsection (1) becomes aware that–
- (a) any information disclosed to the Commission under subsection (1) is false or misleading;
 - (b) any information disclosed to the Commission under subsection (1) is information from which there is a material omission; or
 - (c) the person’s conduct is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive the Commission, the person shall advise the Commission of the facts and shall take such action as the Commission may require.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or both.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.37]

152A. Power of Commission to publish information.

The Commission may, where it thinks necessary or expedient in the interest of the public or for the protection of investors and in such form or manner as it thinks fit, publish any information in relation to–

- (a) the grant of, lapsing, revocation or suspension of an approval, licence or exemption granted under the securities laws to any person;
- (b) the issuance of any rulings under subsection 217(4) of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007;
- (c) any action taken under section 354, 355 or 356 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007;
- (d) an order by the court under section 360 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007;
- (e) the compounding of any offence–
 - (i) under the securities laws; or

- (ii) under any other law, whether the law of Malaysia or any territory or country outside Malaysia;
- (f) any civil or criminal proceedings brought–
 - (i) under the securities laws against any person and the outcome of such proceedings, including any settlement, whether in or out of court; or
 - (ii) under any other law, whether the law of Malaysia or any territory or country outside Malaysia, against any person and the outcome of such proceedings, including any settlement, whether in or out of court;

[Am. Act A1403:s.31]
- (fa) any action taken under section 125 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007;

[Ins. Act A1403:s.31]
- (fb) any action taken under section 220 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007; or;

[Ins. Act A1403:s.31]
- (g) any other action as may be taken by the Minister, the Commission, a stock exchange, a derivatives exchange or an approved clearing house against any person.

[Ins. Act A1305:s.21] [Am. Act A1403:s.31]

153. [Deleted].

[Deleted by Act A1305:s.22]

154. Officers of Commission may represent Commission in civil proceedings.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any written law-

- (a) in any civil proceedings by or against the Commission; or
- (b) in any other civil proceedings in which the Commission is required or permitted by the court to be represented or to be heard, or is otherwise entitled to be represented or to be heard, any officer of the Commission authorized by the Chairman for the purpose may, on behalf of the Commission, institute such proceedings or appear as an advocate therein, and may make all appearances and applications and to do all acts in respect of such proceedings on behalf of the Commission.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.37]

155. [Deleted]. [Deleted by Act A1305:s.23]

156. [Deleted]. [Deleted by Act A1305:s.24]

157. Attempts, abetments and conspiracies.

A person who—

- (a) attempts to commit any offence under this Act;
- (b) does any act in furtherance of the commission of any offence under this Act;
or
- (c) abets or is engaged in a criminal conspiracy to commit (as those terms are defined in the Penal Code) any offence under this Act, whether or not the offence is committed in consequence thereof, shall be guilty of such offence and shall be punished with or be liable to the penalty provided for such offence.

[Ins. Act A1074:s.37]

158. Written notices circulars, conditions or guidelines.

- (1) The Commission may, generally in respect of any securities law or in respect of any particular provision of any securities law, issue such written notices, circulars or guidelines as the Commission considers desirable.

[Am. Act A1305:s.25]

- (2) Subject to this Act or unless the contrary intention is expressly stated, the Commission may require a person to whom any written notices, circulars, conditions or guidelines apply to give effect to all written notices, circulars, conditions or guidelines issued by the Commission within such period as may be specified by the Commission.

[Am. Act A1217:s.12][Am. Act A1305:s.25]

- (3) [Deleted Act A1305:s.25]

- (4) Where a person referred to in subsection (2) fails to give effect to any written notice, circular, condition or guideline issued by the Commission, the Commission may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity to be heard, take such action as the Commission deems fit.

- (5) [Deleted Act A1305:s.25]
- (6) [Deleted Act A1305:s.25]
- (7) [Deleted Act A1305:s.25]
- (8) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Commission from taking any of the actions that it is empowered to take under any of the provisions of the securities laws against the person failing to give effect to any written notice, circular, condition or guideline.
[Ins. Act A1217:s.12] [Am. Act A1305:s.25]

159. Power to make regulations.

[Am. Act A1074:s.38]

- (1) The Commission may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations as may be necessary or expedient for—
 - (a) giving full effect to the provisions of the securities laws;
 - (b) carrying out or achieving the objects and purposes of the securities laws; or
 - (c) the further, better or convenient implementation of the provisions of the securities laws.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations may be made for the non-application of any of the provisions of the securities laws on any specified person or to any person who is a member of a specified class of persons, subject to any terms and conditions prescribed.
[Ins. Act A1074:s.38] [Subs. Act A1403:s.32]

159A. Power to amend schedules

- (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission, by order published in the Gazette, vary, delete, add to, substitute for, or otherwise amend any of the schedules in this Act.
- (2) The Minister in varying, deleting, adding or substituting any of the schedules referred to in subsection (1) may impose such terms and conditions as he thinks necessary.

- (3) In making the order under subsection (1), the Minister shall have regard to the interests of the public.

[Ins. Act A1403:s.33]

160. Indemnity.

[Am. Act A1074:s.39]

The Commission, any member of the Commission or Shariah Advisory Council or Audit Oversight Board, any member of any committee established by the Commission or Shariah Advisory Council or Audit Oversight Board, the Chairman and any officer of the Commission shall not be liable to an action or other proceedings for damages for or on account of, or in respect of, any act done or statement made, omitted to be done or made, in pursuance of or in execution of a securities law or in the performance of any function, or in exercise of any power, conferred or expressed to be conferred by or under a securities law:

Provided that such act, statement, performance of function or exercise of power was done or made in good faith.

[Ins. Act A926:s.18] [Ins. Act A1369:s.6]

PART VII

REPEAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

161. Repeal.

[Am. Act A1074:s.40]

Sections 5 and 6 of the Securities Industry Act 1983 and section 179 of the Companies Act 1965 (in this Part referred to as the “repealed sections”) are hereby repealed.

162. Saving.

[Am. Act A1074:s.41]

All regulations, instructions, orders and decisions made under or in accordance with the repealed sections shall remain valid and binding and shall be deemed to have been made under the provisions of this Act until they are amended or repealed or until they expire.

163. Continuance of other rights, liabilities, etc. under the repealed sections.

[Am. Act A1074:s.42]

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or accrued under the repealed sections or any legal proceedings or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation or liability shall not be affected and any such legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced as if this Act had not been made.
- (2) All applications pending under the repealed sections shall be dealt with under this Act by the Commission as if they had been made under the provisions of this Act.

164. Continuance of criminal and civil proceedings.

[Am. Act A1074:s.43]

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, neither the repealed sections nor anything contained in this Act shall affect any person liable to be prosecuted or punished for offences committed under the repealed sections before the appointed day, or any proceedings brought or sentence imposed before that day in respect of such offence.

- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the appointed day, by or against the Capital Issues Committee or the Panel On Take-Overs And Mergers or any person acting on behalf of the Capital Issues Committee or the Panel On Take-Overs And Mergers may be continued or instituted by or against the Capital Issues Committee or the Panel On Take-Overs And Mergers as it might have been continued or instituted by or against the Capital Issues Committee or the Panel On Take-Overs And Mergers or such person if this Act had not been passed.
- (3) Any appeal brought or any leave to appeal applied for on or after the appointed day against a decision given in any legal proceedings before that day may be brought by or against the Commission as it might have been brought by or against the Capital Issues Committee or the Panel On Take-Overs And Mergers if this Act had not been passed.

165. Transitional and savings.

- (1) All actions, regulations, orders, directions, notifications, approvals, decisions and other executive acts, howsoever called, made, given or done under, or in accordance with, or by virtue of, the provisions of the Companies Act 1965 or the Securities Commission (Unit Trust Scheme) Regulations 1996 [P.U.(A) 439/96] before the commencement of this Act shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made, given, or done under, or in accordance with, or by virtue of, the corresponding provisions of the Companies Act 1965 or the Securities Commission (Unit Trust Scheme) Regulations 1996 as amended by this Act, and shall continue to remain in force and have effect in relation to the persons to whom they apply until amended, revoked or rescinded under, in accordance with, or by virtue of, the corresponding provisions of the principal Act as amended by this Act.
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall affect any person's liability to be prosecuted or punished for offences committed under the Companies Act 1965 or the Securities Commission (Unit Trust Scheme) Regulations 1996 before the commencement of this Act or any proceedings brought or sentence imposed before the date of commencement of this Act in respect of such offence.
- (3) Nothing in this Act shall affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the Companies Act 1965 or the Securities Commission (Unit Trust Scheme) Regulations 1996 before the commencement of this Act and any legal proceedings, remedy or investigation in respect of such right, privilege, obligation or liability shall not be affected and any such legal proceedings, remedy or investigation may be instituted, continued or enforced as if this Act had not been enacted.

- (4) Nothing in this Act shall—
- (a) affect the validity of any securities or the operation of any trust deed or deed issued or executed before the commencement of this Act;
 - (b) apply in relation to an issuer, borrower, guarantor or trustee or any other person in respect of any securities that have been issued or offered for subscription or purchase or in respect of which an invitation to subscribe for or purchase securities has been made before the commencement of this Act; or
 - (c) require the appointment of any trustee or the execution of any trust deed in respect of any debenture issued before the commencement of this Act, where there was no such requirement before the commencement of this Act.

[Am. Act A1149:s.7]

- (4A) Any condition imposed in relation to an approval given by the Central Bank of Malaysia or terms of a debenture approved by the Central Bank of Malaysia pursuant to paragraph (e) of Part I of the First Schedule to the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 [Act 372] before 1 July 2000 may, after 1 July 2000, be varied or modified by the Commission under section 32 of the Act.

[Ins. P.U. (A) 354/2000]

- (5) Where, upon the commencement of this Act, securities may be issued, offered for subscription or purchase or where an invitation to subscribe for or purchase securities has been made on the basis of any prospectus issued before the commencement of this Act, the issuer shall, unless the written approval of the Commission granting an exemption is obtained, issue such supplementary prospectus and take such other action to ensure that the issue, offer or invitation complies with the requirements of this Act.
- (6) The Commission may, by a direction in writing given to any issuer referred to in subsection (5) determine what action is to be taken by that issuer and how any difficulty arising in respect of the provisions introduced or amended by this Act may be overcome.
- (7) Nothing in this Act shall—
- (a) affect the validity or operation of any interest or deed, to which Division 5 of Part IV of the Companies Act 1965 applies, issued or executed before the commencement of this Act; or

- (b) apply in relation to the management company by or on whose behalf any interest to which Division 5 of Part IV of the Companies Act 1965 applies and which have been issued before the commencement of this Act or in relation to the trustee for the holders of any such interest.
[Ins. Act A1074:s.44]

166. Prevention of anomalies.

If any difficulty arises with respect to the foregoing saving and transitional provisions, the Minister may by order make such modifications in those provisions as may appear to him necessary for preventing anomalies:

Provided that the Minister shall not exercise the power so conferred by this section after the expiration of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.
