Chapter 1

INTRODUCTION

- 1.01 The Guidelines for Shariah Advisers (Guidelines) are issued by the Securities Commission Malaysia (SC) pursuant to section 377 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007 (CMSA).
- 1.02 The service of providing advice to others concerning compliance with Shariah matters for purposes of–
- (i) making available, offering or issuing an Islamic capital market product; or
 - (ii) carrying on an Islamic capital market activity,
- is specified to be a capital market service for the purposes of section 76A of the CMSA.
- 1.03 For the purposes of these Guidelines, a Shariah adviser means a person who is registered with the SC to provide the services as described under paragraph 1.02.
- 1.04 These Guidelines set out the–
- (i) requirements for registration of a Shariah adviser; and
 - (ii) continuous obligations and conduct requirements relating to a Shariah adviser.

Chapter 2

APPLICABILITY

2.01 These Guidelines apply to any person who intends to provide the services described in paragraph 1.02 including licensed Islamic banks, licensed banks or licensed investment banks approved by BNM to carry on Islamic banking business.

2.02 For purposes of these Guidelines,—

(a) a licensed Islamic bank; and

(b) a licensed bank or licensed investment bank approved by BNM to carry on Islamic banking business, are deemed to be registered with the SC as a Shariah adviser.

2.03 Guidance on the application of the requirements of these Guidelines has been provided, where appropriate. Any departure from the Guidance will be taken into consideration in the SC's assessment on whether a breach of these Guidelines had occurred.

2.04 The SC may, upon an application, grant an exemption from or a variation to the requirements of these Guidelines if the SC is satisfied that—

(a) such variation is not contrary to the intended purpose of the relevant requirements in these Guidelines; or

(b) there are mitigating factors which justify the said exemption or variation.

Chapter 3

RELATED PROVISIONS

- 3.01 These Guidelines supersede and replace the Registration of Shariah Advisers Guidelines.
- 3.02 These Guidelines are in addition to and not in derogation of any requirements provided for under securities laws or any other guidelines issued by the SC.
- 3.03 For avoidance of doubt, compliance with these Guidelines do not relieve any person from other obligations which may be imposed on the person by any other relevant regulator.

Chapter 5

REGISTRATION AS SHARIAH ADVISER

5.01 The SC may register a person as a Shariah adviser, subject to the person satisfying the requirements set out in this chapter.

Application and fees

5.02 An applicant is required to submit to the SC the relevant forms and documents as specified in Appendix 2 and Appendix 3 of these Guidelines and any other information as may be required by the SC.

5.03 An applicant must ensure that the application submitted pursuant to paragraph 5.02 is accompanied with the prescribed fees. An application is deemed incomplete if the appropriate fee is not submitted.

5.04 Notwithstanding paragraph 2.02, a financial institution who is a Shariah adviser must pay the prescribed fees in the form and manner as specified by the SC.

Criteria for registration

5.05 The SC may register an applicant as a Shariah adviser, if the SC is satisfied that all the following requirements are fulfilled:

- (a) In the case of an individual, the person–
 - (i) must be a Muslim;
 - (ii) holds, at a minimum, a degree in any of the following:
 - (A) Shariah;
 - (B) Law, with a focus on Shariah; or
 - (C) Islamic Studies,

in which the degree must include study in fiqh muamalat (Islamic transaction/commercial law) or usul fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence);

- (iii) has at least three consecutive years of relevant working experience in Islamic finance preceding the application; and
- (iv) is fit and proper; or

Guidance to paragraph 5.05(a)(iii)

Relevant working experience in Islamic finance include working in–

- (i) financial institution;
- (ii) licensed capital market intermediaries;
- (iii) academia; or
- (iv) government agencies and ministries,

that has direct involvement in Islamic finance practices or activities.

- (b) In the case of a corporation–
 - (i) the applicant, its directors and senior management are fit and proper;
 - (ii) the applicant must have at least one full-time Shariah officer; and
 - (iii) the Shariah officer has met the requirements as specified in paragraph 5.05(a) for individual.

Terms and conditions

5.06 The SC may, in registering a Shariah adviser, impose any term or condition.

5.07 Notwithstanding paragraph 5.06, the SC may at any time, by notice in writing, amend or revoke any of the term or condition imposed or impose new terms or conditions.

Chapter 6

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF SHARIAH ADVISER

6.01 A Shariah adviser must, among others–

- (a) provide Shariah expertise and advice on Shariah matters in relation to the Islamic capital market products or the Islamic capital market activity including matters relating to documentation (which includes the deed and prospectus), structure, feature, investment instruments and ensure that all aspects of the products or activities are in accordance with Shariah requirements as set out in the relevant securities laws and guidelines issued by the SC;
- (b) ensure that the applicable Shariah rulings, principles and concepts endorsed by the SAC are complied with; and
- (c) apply ijtihad (intellectual reasoning) to ensure all aspects relating to the Islamic capital market products and the Islamic capital market activity are in compliance with Shariah, in the absence of any Shariah rulings, principles and concepts endorsed by the SAC.

6.02 In carrying out the roles and responsibilities above, a Shariah adviser must act with due care, skill and diligence.

6.03 Where there is ambiguity or uncertainty relating to any Shariah matters, the Shariah adviser must consult the SC.

Chapter 7

CONTINUOUS OBLIGATIONS

7.01 A Shariah adviser must comply with the following continuous obligations-

- (a) In the case where the Shariah adviser is an individual, the individual must–
 - (i) remain fit and proper at all times; and
 - (ii) attend at least three SIDC’s CPE-approved courses on capital market annually before the anniversary date of his or her registration;

- (b) In the case where the Shariah adviser is a corporation, the corporation must ensure that–
 - (i) its directors, senior management and Shariah officer remain fit and proper at all times;
 - (ii) its Shariah officer attends at least three SIDC’s CPE-approved courses on capital market annually before the anniversary date of their registration;
 - (iii) it informs the SC within 10 business days from the date when the Shariah officer is no longer employed by the corporation;
 - (iv) it takes the necessary steps to recruit a new Shariah officer within three months from the date of vacancy, unless otherwise approved by the SC; and
 - (v) only its Shariah officer may provide Shariah advice; or

- (c) In the case where the Shariah adviser is a financial institution, the financial institution must ensure that its directors, senior management and Shariah committee members remain fit and proper at all times.

7.02 In addition to paragraph 7.01(c), the financial institution is encouraged to send its Shariah committee members to attend at least three SIDC's CPE-approved courses on capital market annually.

Submission of annual declaration

7.03 A Shariah adviser must submit the annual declaration forms as specified in Appendix 3 and Appendix 4 of these Guidelines to the SC within 10 business days from the anniversary date of their registration.

7.04 Paragraph 7.03 shall not apply to a financial institution.

Notification

Individual Shariah adviser

7.05 The individual must provide written notification to the SC within 10 business days from the date when he is no longer fit and proper.

Corporation Shariah adviser

7.06 The corporation must provide written notification to the SC within 10 business days from the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (a) Where the corporation, its directors, senior management or Shariah officer are no longer fit and proper;

- (b) Where there is a change of its directors, senior management or Shariah officer; or
- (c) Any other material changes.

Financial Institution Shariah adviser

7.07 The financial institution must provide written notification to the SC within 10 business days from the date when the financial institution, its directors, senior management or Shariah committee are no longer fit and proper.

CHAPTER 8

CONDUCT REQUIREMENTS FOR SHARIAH ADVISER

General duties

- 8.01 In carrying out his roles and responsibilities, the Shariah adviser must–
- (a) act honestly and uphold the principles of Shariah;
 - (b) take all reasonable steps to ensure fair treatment in discharging his duties; and
 - (c) carry out any other duties or responsibilities as may be specified by the SC relating to Shariah matters.

Conflict of interest

- 8.02 A Shariah adviser must use their best endeavours to identify and avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest.
- 8.03 Where a conflict of interest cannot be avoided, the Shariah adviser must have adequate arrangements in place to effectively manage or mitigate the conflict of interest including–
- (a) disclosing any material interest or conflict to clients; and
 - (b) taking all reasonable steps to ensure fair treatment of clients before proceeding with the transaction.
- 8.04 A company making available, offering or issuing an Islamic capital market product or carries on an Islamic capital market activity must not appoint a Shariah adviser who is an employee of the company.
- 8.05 Any disclosure made to address an actual or potential conflict of interest must be timely and accurate to enable clients to make an informed assessment of whether such conflict is managed appropriately and not detrimental to the clients' interests.

Chapter 9

REFUSAL OF REGISTRATION AND DEREGISTRATION

Refusal of registration

- 9.01 The SC may refuse an application for registration as a Shariah adviser if the requirements as set out under these Guidelines are not met.
- 9.02 Notwithstanding paragraph 9.01, the SC may refuse an application if the SC has reason to believe that it is necessary for protection of investors or to approve such application would be contrary to the interests of the public.

Suspension and deregistration

- 9.03 The SC may suspend or withdraw the registration of a Shariah adviser under these Guidelines if it is necessary for the protection of investors or in the public interest or if any term or condition imposed by the SC has not been complied with.
- 9.04 For purposes of paragraph 9.03, events or circumstances involving a Shariah adviser that may jeopardise the protection of investors or which is not in the public interest includes, but is not limited to, the following:
- (a) The Shariah adviser is no longer fit and proper;
 - (b) The Shariah adviser fails to remedy any breach or non-compliance as directed by the SC;
 - (c) The Shariah adviser engages in any misleading or deceptive acts, and make or attempt to make any false or misleading statement including falsifying or submitting any falsified documents;
 - (d) The Shariah adviser acts in a manner that would actually or potentially bring the capital market into disrepute; and

- (e) Circumstances or events involving the Shariah adviser that may jeopardise the interests of the investors or the integrity of the capital market.

9.05 The Shariah adviser must immediately notify the relevant parties concerned once its registration has been withdrawn by the SC.

Withdrawal of registration

9.06 The Shariah adviser may, in writing, apply to the SC to withdraw its registration and provide reasons for his or its withdrawal.

9.07 Unless otherwise permitted by the SC, a withdrawal of registration shall not take effect until the SC is satisfied that–

- (a) adequate arrangements have been made to meet all the liabilities and obligations of the Shariah adviser that are outstanding at the time when the application for the withdrawal is submitted; and
- (b) the withdrawal is not use as a means to–
 - (i) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into by the Shariah adviser whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or after the withdrawal of the registration; or
 - (ii) affect any right, obligation or liability in force prior to the withdrawal.

Power of the SC to issue directions

- 9.08 The SC may issue a direction to the Shariah adviser, the Shariah adviser's Board, any of the Shariah adviser's directors or any of the Shariah adviser's senior management if the SC considers it necessary or expedient for the protection of investors, or in the public interest.
- 9.09 A direction issued under this chapter must be complied with and nothing in this chapter shall preclude the SC from exercising its powers under the securities laws.

Chapter 10

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION

10.01 All applications to the SC must include all forms and documents as set out in these Guidelines and addressed to:

Chairman
Securities Commission Malaysia

DECLARATION OF TRUTH AND ACCURACY OF INFORMATION

We are aware that any representation to the Securities Commission Malaysia ("SC") by whatever means or in any form that includes false or misleading statement can result in the SC taking action under Section 369 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007 or other provisions under the securities laws. In addition, it can adversely affect our (i) application or submission; and (ii) fit and proper standing to participate in the capital market industry.

Section 369 is in relation to the submission of any false and misleading statement to the SC. Examples of information submitted to the SC include, but not limited to, notification and reporting to the SC, provision of supplementary information or clarification regarding a submission, and any other information the SC may request. Contravention of section 369 may result in imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding three million ringgit upon conviction.

We hereby declare that all information provided in this submission is true and correct and we have neither concealed nor omitted any material fact or information.

In addition to the declaration of truth and accuracy of information above, on the basis of a due and diligent enquiry made of the background of the named individual (Shariah Officer) in Form 2 (a) and other information available, we believe him to be a good character and reputation and have the competence and experience to perform the identified functions.
