

Suruhanjaya Sekuriti
Securities Commission
Malaysia

Over the years, Malaysia has withstood many crises and the SC has worked closely with the industry to strengthen the capital markets and address systemic weaknesses. As a result, the Malaysian players and institutions are better equipped to face challenges arising from this pandemic.

Datuk Syed Zaid Albar
Chairman, Securities Commission Malaysia

@SecComMY

www.sc.com.my

The SC remains steadfast in ensuring investor interest is protected during this challenging time amid the Covid-19 pandemic. We will continue to raise awareness on scams, as scammers tend to target people during times of uncertainty. The SC will take a targeted approach to protect vulnerable investors and minority shareholders.”

Datuk Syed Zaid Albar
Chairman, Securities Commission Malaysia

GREATER FUNDRAISING ACCESS FOR SMALLER COMPANIES

- Fundraising limits lifted for Equity Crowdfunding (ECF) platforms
- Secondary trading allowed for ECF and P2P platforms

ADDITIONAL LIQUIDITY FOR ALTERNATIVE FUNDRAISING SPACE

The government co-investment fund MyCIF, administered by the SC, has increased its funding matching ratio from 1:4 to 1:2 for eligible ECF and P2P campaigns until 30 September 2020

FURTHER REGULATORY RELIEFS FOR PLCs

- Main Market listed companies provided temporary relief in three criteria for Practice Note 17 (PN17) classification
- Measures will allow companies more time to regularise their financial position

*Effective 17 April 2020 to 30 June 2021

BROADEN THE SUITE OF PRODUCT OFFERINGS FOR FUND MANAGEMENT INDUSTRY

- Facilitate waqf-based collective investment schemes
- Introduce alternative investments for wholesale funds where underlying assets can be property, gold or private equity