1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 1.01 The Guidelines on Tax Exemption for Wholesale Money Market Funds are issued by the SC under section 377 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007.
- 1.02 These Guidelines is applicable to a wholesale money market fund.
- 1.03 The SC, under paragraph 35A of Schedule 6 of Income Tax Act 1967 (ITA) has been given the mandate to set out qualifying criteria which must be fulfilled by a wholesale money market fund for the purpose of tax exemption on its income in respect of interest derived from Malaysia and paid or credited by a bank licensed under the Financial Services Act 2013, an Islamic bank licensed under the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013 or a development financial institution prescribed under the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002. For this purpose, a certification from the SC confirming the fulfilment of such qualifying criteria is required to be obtained.
- 1.04 These Guidelines set out the qualifying criteria referred to in paragraph 1.03 and the procedures for making an application to obtain such certification.
- 1.05 These Guidelines are in addition to and not in derogation of any other guidelines issued by the SC or any requirements as provided for under securities laws.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

2.01 Unless otherwise defined, all words used in these Guidelines shall have the same meaning as defined in the CMSA. In these Guidelines, unless the context otherwise requires– licensed bank has the meaning assigned to it in the Financial Services Act 2013; licensed Islamic bank has the meaning to it in the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013;

short-term means a period of not more than 365 days;

sophisticated investor means any person who falls within any of the categories of investors set out in Part 1, Schedules 6 and 7 of the CMSA;

wholesale fund means a unit trust scheme established where the units are to be issued, offered for subscription or purchase, or for which invitations to subscribe for or purchase the units are to be made, exclusively to sophisticated investors; and

wholesale money
market fund means a wholesale fund whose objective is to invest primarily in short-term money market instrument (including Shariah-compliant money market instrument) and/or placement in short-term deposit.

3.0 TAX EXEMPTION

- 3.01 Schedule 6 of the ITA sets out the tax exemptions granted by the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia.
- 3.02 Paragraph 35A of Schedule 6 of ITA provides that income of a wholesale money market fund in respect of interest derived from Malaysia and paid or credited by-
- (a) a bank licensed under the Financial Services Act 2013;
 - (b) an Islamic bank licensed under the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013; or
 - (c) a development financial institution prescribed under the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002,
- are exempted from tax provided that it complies with the criteria as set out in these Guidelines.
- 3.03 For the purpose of tax exemption above, a wholesale money market fund must obtain a certification from the SC that it has complied with the criteria set out under these Guidelines.
- 3.04 For the purpose of paragraph 3.03, a fund management company must submit relevant information and documents set out under these Guidelines.

4.0 QUALIFYING CRITERIA

Initial certification

- 4.01 The SC may consider granting a certification for tax exemption under paragraph 3.03 where it is satisfied that a wholesale money market fund is not established specifically for a particular investor, or a group of investors which are related parties.
- 4.02 For the purpose of paragraph 4.01, for the initial application for tax exemption, a wholesale money market fund must submit a declaration to the SC confirming the following:
- (a) The wholesale money market fund is not established specifically for a particular investor, or a group of investors which are related parties; and
 - (b) The wholesale money market fund will be made available to any sophisticated investor, and will be actively marketed in the wholesale market.

Certification for subsequent years of assessment

- 4.03 For the subsequent years of assessment, the application for certification of the wholesale money market fund must be submitted to the SC on the second business day of the last month of the preceding year of assessment. The application must be accompanied by a declaration to the SC confirming the following:
- (a) The wholesale money market fund has an average of at least 15 unit holders for the past 12 months;
 - (b) Each unit holder does not hold more than 10% of net asset value of the wholesale money market fund; and
 - (c) Any breach of subparagraph (b) above caused by redemptions has been or will be rectified within three months from the date of the breach.
- 4.04 Notwithstanding paragraph 4.03, a wholesale money market fund which has been launched for a period of less than one year at the point of declaration, may instead provide a confirmation that, at the point of declaration, the wholesale money market fund has at least 15 unit holders.

4.05 In addition to the criteria set out in paragraphs 4.01 to 4.04 above, the SC may impose additional requirements, as may be notified in advance from time to time.

5.0 TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

- 5.01 This section applies to a wholesale money market fund which have been approved, authorised, recognised or complied with the requirements of the Lodge and Launch Framework specified in SC's guidelines, before the effective date of these Guidelines.
- 5.02 Any income in respect of interest earned or accrued up to 31 December 2016 derived from Malaysia and paid or credited before or after 31 December 2016 by-
- (a) a bank licensed under the Financial Services Act 2013;
 - (b) an Islamic bank licensed under the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013; or
 - (c) a development financial institution prescribed under the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002,
- is exempted from tax.
- 5.03 For income in respect of interest earned from 1 January 2017, the wholesale money market fund must obtain a certification from the SC prior to 1 January 2017.
- 5.04 For the purpose of paragraph 5.03, the wholesale money market fund must submit a declaration to the SC confirming the following:
- (a) The wholesale money market fund is not established specifically for a particular investor, or a group of investors which are related parties;
 - (b) The wholesale money market fund will be made available to any sophisticated investor, and will be actively marketed in the wholesale market; and
 - (c) The wholesale money market fund has at least 15 unit holders as at 30 November 2016 or an average of at least 15 unit holders in the 12 months up to 30 November 2016.
- 5.05 For wholesale money market funds whose year of assessment 2018 commences 1 February 2017 up to 1 July 2017, the application for certification for year of assessment 2018 can be submitted concurrently with the application for initial certification.

5.06 For the subsequent years of assessment, the wholesale money market fund must comply with the criteria under paragraph 4.03 of these Guidelines.

6.0 APPLICATION PROCEDURES

6.01 An application seeking certification for tax exemption in relation to paragraph 35A of Schedule 6 of the ITA must be made to the SC by completing and submitting the application form as set out in Appendix 1 of these Guidelines and the written declaration as set out in Appendix 2 of these Guidelines.
