- (b) Save for 8,750,000 Shares under the Pink Form Allocations as disclosed in Section 4.3.3,
 - (i) no Director, employee or business associate of our Group has been or is entitled to be given or has exercised any option to subscribe for any share of our Company or our subsidiary; and
 - (ii) there is no scheme involving the employees of our Group in the shares of our Company or our subsidiary.
- (c) Save for the issuance of ordinary shares in Ecomate pursuant to the pre-IPO investment as set out in Section 6.2.1, new Shares issued and to be issued pursuant to the Acquisition of Ecomate and Public Issue as disclosed in Sections 6.2.2 and 4.3.1 respectively and the 2 Shares subscribed by our Promoters on our incorporation, no shares of our Company or our subsidiary have been issued or are proposed to be issued as fully or partly paid-up, in cash or otherwise, within the past 2 years immediately preceding the date of this Prospectus.
- (d) Other than our Public Issue as disclosed in Section 4.3.1, there is no intention on the part of our Directors to further issue any Shares pursuant to this Prospectus.
- (e) As at the date of this Prospectus, we do not have any outstanding convertible debt securities.

14.2 CONSTITUTION

The following provisions are extracted from our Company's Constitution. Terms defined in our Constitution shall have the same meanings when used here unless they are otherwise defined here or the context otherwise requires. The following provisions extracted from our Company's Constitution are based on the current Listing Requirements and the Act.

(1) Remuneration, voting and borrowing power of Directors

The provisions in our Constitution dealing with remuneration, voting and borrowing power of Directors are as follows:

Clause 105 - Directors' remuneration

The Directors shall be paid by way of fees for their services, such fixed sum (if any) as shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting and such fees shall be divided among the Directors in such proportions and manner as the Directors may determine (or failing agreement, equally). PROVIDED ALWAYS that:-

- (a) fee payable to Directors who hold non-executive office in the Company shall be paid by a fixed sum and not by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

- (b) salaries payable to Directors who hold executive office in the Company may not include a commission on or percentage of turnover.
- (c) fees and any benefits payable to Directors shall be subject to annual shareholder approval at a general meeting.
- (d) any fee paid to an alternate Director shall be such as shall be agreed between himself and the Director nominating him and shall be paid out of the remuneration of the latter.

Clause 106 - Reimbursement of expenses

- (1) The Directors shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all their travelling and other reasonable expenses as may be incurred in attending meetings of the Directors or any committee of the Directors of the Company, in or about the business of the Company in the course of the performance of their duties as Directors.
- (2) If any Director being willing shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from his usual place of business or residence for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company as a member of a committee of Directors, the Company may remunerate the Director so doing either by a fixed sum or otherwise (other than by a sum to include a commission on or percentage of turnover) as may be determined by the Board of Directors provided that in the case of Non-Executive Directors of the Company, the said remuneration shall not include a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover. In the case of an Executive Director, such fee may be either in addition to or in substitution for his share in the fee from time to time provided for the Directors.

Clause 118 - Director may act in his professional capacity

Any Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director, provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as auditor of the Company and provided further that such shall be at normal commercial terms.

Clause 131 – Alternate Director

- (1) Each Director shall have power from time to time to nominate any person (not being a Director) to act as his alternate Director and at his discretion remove such alternate Director, but the appointment of such alternate Director shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the other Directors PROVIDED ALWAYS that:
 - (a) such person is not a director of the Company;
 - (b) such person does not act as an alternate for more than one director of the Company;
 - (c) the appointment is approved by a majority of the other members of the Board; and

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

- (d) any fee paid by the Company to an alternate Director shall be deducted from that Director's remuneration.
- (2) An alternate Director shall (except as regards the power to appoint an alternate Director and remuneration) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such meeting at which his appointer is not present.
- (3) Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director may be made by way of electronic or in any other manner approved by the Directors. Any way of electronic shall be confirmed as soon as possible by letter, but may be acted upon by the Company in the meanwhile.
- (4) If a Director making any such appointment as aforesaid shall cease to be a Director (otherwise than by reason of vacating his office at a meeting of the Company at which he is re-elected), the person appointed by him shall thereupon cease to have any power or authority to act as an alternate Director.
- (5) A Director shall not be liable for the acts and defaults of any alternate Director appointed by him.
- (6) An alternate Director shall not be taken into account in reckoning the minimum or maximum number of Directors allowed for the time being but he shall be counted for the purpose of reckoning whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Directors attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.

Clause 133 – Remuneration of Director holding executive office

The remuneration of a Director holding an executive office pursuant to this Constitution shall be fixed by the Directors and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or otherwise or by any or all of these modes but shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover.

Clause 135 – Power of Directors to appoint committees

The Directors may establish any committees, local boards or agencies comprising two (2) or more persons for managing any other affairs of the Company either in Malaysia or elsewhere, and may lay down, vary or annul such rules and regulations as they may think fit for the conduct of the business thereof, and may appoint any person or persons to be the member or members of any such committee or local board or agency and may fix their remuneration and may delegate to any such committee or local board or agency any of the powers, authorities and discretion vested in the Directors, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the member or members of any such committee or local board or agency or any of them, to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Director may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no persons dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby. The regulations herein contained for the proceedings of Directors shall so far as not altered by any regulations made by the Directors apply also to the meetings and proceedings of any committee.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)Clause 111 – Power to maintain pension fund

The Directors may establish or arrange any contributory or non-contributory pension or superannuation scheme for the benefit of, or pay a gratuity, pension or emolument to any person who is or has been employed by or in the service of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, or to any person who is or has been a Director or other officer of and holds or has held salaried employment in the Company or any such subsidiary, and the widow, family or dependants of any such person. The Directors may also subscribe to any association or fund which they consider to be for the benefit of the Company or any such subsidiary or any such person as aforesaid and make payments for or towards any hospital or scholastic expenses and any Director holding such salaried employment shall be entitled to retain any benefit received by him hereunder subject only, where the Act requires, to proper disclosure to the Members and the approval of the Company in general meeting.

Clause 110– Directors' borrowing powers

- (1) The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge the Company's or the subsidiaries' undertaking, property and uncalled capital or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or its subsidiaries as may be thought fit.
- (2) The Directors shall not borrow any money or mortgage or charge any of the Company's or the subsidiaries' undertaking, property or any uncalled capital, or to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of an unrelated third party.
- (3) The Directors may borrow or raise any such money as aforesaid upon or by the issue or sale of any bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or securities, and upon such terms as to time of repayment, rate of interest, price of issue or sale; payment of premium or bonus upon redemption or repayment or upon any other terms as they may think proper.
- (4) Any debenture or other security may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and (with the sanction of the Company in general meeting) with any special privilege as to allotment of shares, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors or otherwise.
- (5) Subject to the Act, if the Directors or any of them, or any other person, shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Directors, or persons so becoming liable as aforesaid, from any loss in respect of such liability.

Clause 126 – Disclosure of interest

Every Director shall comply with the provisions of Sections 219 and 221 of the Act in connection with the disclosure of his shareholding and interests in the Company and his interest in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and in connection with the disclosure, every Director shall state the fact and the nature, character and extent of any office or possession of any property whereby whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duty or interest as a Director of the Company.

Clause 127 – Restriction on voting

A Director may contract with and be interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and shall not be liable to account for any profit made by him by reason of any such contract; PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT the nature of the interest of the Director in any such contract be declared at a meeting of the Directors as required by Section 221 of the Act. A Director shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he has directly or indirectly an interest (and if he shall do so his vote shall not be counted), nor shall he be counted for the purpose of any resolution regarding the same, in the quorum present at the meeting.

Clause 128 – Relaxation of restriction of voting

A Director notwithstanding his interest may, provided that none of the other Directors present disagree, be counted in the quorum present at any meeting whereat he or any other Director is appointed to hold any office or place of profit under the Company or whereat the Directors resolve to exercise any of the rights of the Company (whether by the exercise of voting rights or otherwise) to appoint or concur in the appointment of a Director to hold any office or place of profit under any other company, or whereat any decision is taken upon any contract or arrangement in which he is in any way interested PROVIDED ALWAYS that he has complied with Section 221 and all other relevant provisions of the Act and of this Constitution.

Clause 129

A Director may vote in respect of: -

- (a) any arrangement for giving the Director himself or any other Directors any security or indemnity or any other Directors any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him to or obligations undertaken by him for the benefit of the Company;
- (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company for which the Director himself or any other Director has assumed responsibility in whole or in part, under a guarantee or indemnity or by the deposit of a security.

Clause 130 – Directors may become Directors of other corporation

A Director of the Company may be or become a Director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any corporation promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise or any corporation which is directly or indirectly interested in the Company as shareholder or otherwise and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for a remuneration or other benefit received by him as a Director or officer of, or from his interest in, such corporation unless the Company otherwise directs at the time of his appointment. The Directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares or other interest in any such other corporation held or owned by the Company, or exercisable by them as Directors of such other corporation, in such manner and in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of the Directors or other officers of such corporation), and any Director may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that he may be or is about to be appointed a Director or other officer of such corporation and as such is or may become interested in the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid.

(2) Changes to Share Capital

The provisions in our Constitution dealing with changes to share capital and variation of class rights are as follows:

Clause 6 - Power to issue shares with special rights

(1) Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares but subject to Section 75(2) of the Act and to this Constitution, the Directors shall only upon prior approval by way of resolution by the members, exercise any power to:

- (a) allot shares in the Company;
- (b) grant rights to subscribe for shares in the Company;
- (c) convert any security into shares in the Company; or
- (d) allot shares under an agreement or option or offer.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that:

the pricing, issuance and/or placement of shares of convertible securities shall be in compliance with and not in contravention of the provisions of the Listing Requirements; and

(2) Any such shares may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, or otherwise as the Directors may determine. Where the Company has different classes of shares, this Constitution will state:

- (a) that the Company's share capital is divided into different classes of shares;
- (b) the voting rights attached to shares in each class;
- (c) any other rights attached to those shares; and
- (d) any other things which Section 90 of the Act requires.

Clause 7 - Allotment of Shares to directors, etc

The Company shall not issue shares or other convertible securities to the Directors or major shareholder or chief executive of the Company and/or its holding company or the person(s) connected to them unless the Members in the general meeting have approved the specific allotment to be made to such persons.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)Clause 8 - Offer of unissued original shares and new shares

Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in a general meeting, all new shares or other convertible securities shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or securities to which they are entitled. Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of any intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new shares or securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or securities bear to shares or securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered in the manner provided under this Constitution.

Clause 9 - General mandate for issue of securities

Notwithstanding the existence of a resolution pursuant to Section 76 of the Act, but subject always to the Listing Requirements, the Company may obtain members' approval for further issues of shares where the aggregate issues during the preceding twelve (12) months do not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total number of issued capital (excluding the treasury shares) of the Company or such other quantum and/or percentage as allowed under the Act and Listing Requirements, and where, in accordance with the provisions of Section 75 of the Act, there is still in effect a resolution approving the issue of shares by the Company.

Clause 12 – Repayment of preference capital

Notwithstanding Clause 13 hereof, the repayment of preference share capital other than redeemable preference shares, or any alteration of preference shareholder's rights may only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the preference shareholders concerned PROVIDED ALWAYS that where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing representing not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total voting rights of the preference shareholders concerned obtained within 2 months of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution carried at the meeting.

Clause 13 - Modification of class rights

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders representing not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total voting rights of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class pursuant to the provisions of Section 292 of the Act. To every such separate general meeting, the provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, except that the necessary quorum hereof shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third (1/3) of the issued shares of the class and for an adjourned meeting one (1) person holding shares of such class.

Clause 14 - Ranking of class rights

The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of the Company in some or in all respects pari passu therewith.

Clause 15 - Commission on subscription of shares

The Company may exercise the powers of paying commission conferred by the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act, and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten percent (10%) of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of that price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

Clause 16 - Trusts not to be recognised

Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even with notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any unit of share or (except only as by this Constitution or by law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any shares, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

Clause 17 - Issue of Securities

A company must ensure that all new issues of securities for which listing is sought are made by way of crediting the securities accounts of the allottees with such securities save and except where it is specifically exempted from compliance with Section 38 of the Central Depositories Act, in which event it shall so similarly be exempted from compliance with this Requirement. For this purpose, the Company must notify the Depository of the names of the allottees and all such particulars required by the Depository, to enable the Depository to make the appropriate entries in the securities accounts of such allottees. The Company shall, if required by the Listing Requirements to obtain an auditors' certificate to the effect that the issue of the new Securities is in accordance with the Listing Requirements and this Constitution.

Clause 18 - Allotment of Securities and dispatch notices

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the Company shall allot and/or issue securities, despatch notices of allotment to the successful allottees and make an application for the quotation of such securities within the relevant periods prescribed by the Exchange.

Clause 61 - Power to alter capital

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

- (a) The shareholders may pass special resolutions to alter the Company's share capital in accordance with Section 84 of the Act as follows:
 - (i) to consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share, shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived;
 - (ii) to convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock and may reconvert that stock into paid-up shares;
 - (iii) to subdivide its shares or any of the shares, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportions between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived; or
 - (iv) cancel any shares, which at the date of the passing of the resolution, which have been forfeited, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
- (b) If any shares are consolidated or divided, the Directors may deal with any fractions of shares which result or any other problem that arises. If the Directors decide to sell any shares which represent fractions, they must sell for the best price they can reasonably obtain and distribute the net proceeds of sale among shareholders in proportion to their fractional entitlements or shall be disregarded and will be dealt with by the Directors in such a manner as they deem fit at their absolute discretion and in the best interest of the Company. The Directors can sell to a person (including the Company, if the Act and Listing Requirements allow) and can authorise a person to transfer those shares to the buyer or in accordance with the buyer's instructions. The buyer does not need to take any action to check how any money paid is used. The buyer's ownership will not be affected if the sale was irregular or invalid in any way.

Clause 62 - Share Buy-Back

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act and such other relevant law, regulation or guideline for the time being in force, the Company is allowed and shall have power, to the fullest extent permitted, to purchase any of its own shares and other securities and thereafter, the Directors may resolve and shall have the fullest power to deal with such purchased shares or other securities in accordance with the provisions of the Act and such other relevant law, regulation or guideline.

Clause 63 - Power to reduce capital

The shareholders can pass a special resolution to reduce in any way the Company's share capital in accordance with Subdivision 4 of Division 1 of Part III of Act, whether with the confirmation of the Court or a solvency statement.

(3) Transfer of securities

Clause 33 – Transfers

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

The transfer of any listed securities or class of listed securities of the Company which have been deposited with the Depository shall be by way of book entry by the Depository in accordance with the Rules, notwithstanding Sections 105, 106 or 110 of the Act, but subject to subsection 148(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from compliance with subsection 148(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of such securities.

Clause 34 - Transferor's Right

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the transfer of all other shares of the Company not so deposited with the Depository (not being Deposited Securities) shall be in the manner provided in the Act (including the applicable provisions of Third Schedule to the Act) to the extent that the same is not inconsistent with this Constitution.

The instrument of transfer of the share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered into the Register as the case may be in respect thereof. Subject to the relevant law and regulations, an instrument of transfer must be in respect of only one (1) class of Shares.

Neither the Company nor its Directors nor any of its officers shall incur any liability for registering or acting upon a transfer of any shares which is legally inoperative or insufficient to pass the property of such shares to be transferred by reason of any fraud or other cause unknown to the Company or its Directors or officers.

Clause 37 - Restriction on transfer

There should be no restriction on the transfer of fully paid Shares except where required by law or the relevant regulations or where the Company has a lien and no Share shall in any circumstances be transferred to any infant, bankrupt or person of unsound mind.

Clause 38 - Refusal to register transfer

- (1) Subject to Section 106 and any other relevant provisions of the Act, the Directors may refuse or delay to register the transfer of a share, not being a deposited security, to a person of whom they shall not approve.
- (2) The Depository may refuse to register any transfer of deposited security that does not comply with the Central Depositories Act and the Rules.

Clause 40 - Renunciation

Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the allottee thereof in favour of some other person.

Clause 41 – Reasonable Diligence

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, where by the exercise of reasonable diligence the Company is unable to discover the whereabouts of a Member for a period of not less than ten (10) years the Company may cause an advertisement circulating in the place shown in the Register as the address of the Member stating that the Company after expiration of one (1) month from the date of the advertisement intends to transfer the shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

Clause 42 - Transfer of shares to Minister charged with responsibility for finance

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, if after the expiration of one (1) month from the date of the advertisement the whereabouts of the Member remains unknown, the Company may transfer the shares held by the Member to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance and for the purpose may execute for and on behalf of such Member a transfer of those shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance.

Clause 43 - Death of Member

In the case of the death of a Member, the person(s) recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares shall be, where the deceased was a sole holder, the legal representative(s) of the deceased, and where the deceased was a joint holder, the survivor; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability in respect of any share which had been held by him.

Clause 44 - Notice of election

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy. Provided always that where the share is a Deposited Security, subject to the Rules, a transfer or withdrawal of the shares may be carried out by the person becoming so entitled. Nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability in respect of any share which had been held by him.

Clause 45 - Share of deceased or bankrupt Member

Subject to Clause 48

If any person so becoming entitled elects to register himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company, a notice in writing signed by him and stating that he so elects, provided that where the share is a Deposited Security and the person becoming entitled elects to have the share transferred to him, the aforesaid notice must be served by him to the Depository together with such other relevant documents as may be required by the Depository. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.

Clause 47 - Transmission of Securities

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

Where :-

- (a) the securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange; and
- (b) the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories)(Amendment) Act 1998, as the case may be, under the Rules in respect of such securities, the Company shall, upon request of a holder of securities, permit a transmission of securities held by such securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the Registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other stock exchange, to the register of holders maintained by the Registrar of Companies in Malaysia and vice versa provided that there shall be no change in the ownership of such securities.

(4) Rights, preferences and restrictions attached to each class of securities relating to voting, dividend, liquidation and any special rights

The provisions in our Constitution dealing with rights, preferences and restrictions attached to each class of securities relating to voting, dividend, liquidation and any special rights are as follows:

Clause 10 - New shares to rank with original shares

Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, or by this Constitution, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original share capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital.

Clause 11 - Rights of preference shareholders

Subject to the Act, any preference shares may with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed and the Company shall not issue preference shares ranking in priority above preference shares already issued, but may issue preference shares ranking equally therewith. Preference shareholders shall have the same rights as ordinary shareholders in relation to receiving notices, reports and audited financial statements and attending general meetings of the Company.

Clause 46 - Person entitled may receive dividends

Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the assignee or his estate, as the case may be, shall, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages and to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Security (whether in relation to meetings of the Company or to voting or otherwise), except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it, to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company. Provided further always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect, either to be registered himself or to transfer the Security, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Directors may, thereafter, withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the Security until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Clause 59 - Rights of stock holders

The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, participation in assets on a winding up, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such right, privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that right, privilege or advantage.

Clause 69 - Record of Depositors eligible to be present and vote

Subject to the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Foreign Ownership) Regulations 1996 (where applicable) and notwithstanding any provision in the Act, a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any general meeting and to speak and vote thereat unless his name appears in the General Meeting Record of Depositors.

Clause 81 - How a vote is to be taken

- (1) At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded as soon as, or before, the result of the show of hands is declared by the chairman. A poll can be demanded by:
 - (a) the Chairman of the meeting;
 - (b) at least three (3) members;
 - (c) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing at least 10% of the total voting rights of all Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (d) a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to at least 10% of the total sum paid on all the shares conferring that right.

The Chairman of the meeting can also demand a poll before all, some or any of the resolutions are put to the vote on a show of hands. If Listing Requirements or Bursa Securities or any part of regulations requires that a poll be taken in relation to any resolution or that all resolutions at a meeting be by way of poll, that resolution or those resolutions will be decided by a poll. The Chairman shall demand a poll when this happens.

- (2) A demand for a poll can be withdrawn if the Chairman agrees to this. However, this does not apply to a resolution which Listing Requirements or Bursa Securities requires to be decided by a poll. If a poll is demanded, and this demand is then withdrawn, a declaration by the Chairman of the result of a vote by a show of hands on that resolution, which was made before the poll was demanded, will stand.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

Clause 83 - Voting

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class of shares at meetings of Members or classes of Members, each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney or duly authorized representative, and on a resolution to be decided on a show of hands, a holder of ordinary shares or preference shares who is personally present or by proxy or attorney or representative appointed under this Constitution and entitled to vote shall be entitled to one (1) vote, and on a poll, every Member present in person or by proxy or attorney or representative shall have one (1) vote for each share he holds. A proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands on any question at any general meeting.

Clause 84 - Shares of different monetary denominations

Where the capital of the Company consists of shares of different monetary denominations, voting rights shall be prescribed in such a manner that a unit of capital in each class, when reduced to a common denominator, shall carry the same voting power when such right is exercisable.

Clause 85 - Vote of Member of unsound mind and person entitled to transfer

A Member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental disorder may vote, whether in a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or by such other person as properly has the management of his estate, and any such committee or other person may vote by proxy or attorney and subject to the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, any person entitled, under the Clause relating to transmission of shares in this Constitution to transfer any shares, may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he was the registered holder of such shares provided that at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, as the case may be at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

Clause 86 - Member barred from voting while call unpaid

Subject to this Constitution, a Member shall be entitled to be present and vote at any general meeting in respect of any share or shares of which he is the registered holder and upon which all calls due to the Company have been paid. No person shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any resolution either as a Member or otherwise as a proxy or attorney or representative at any general meeting or demand a poll or be reckoned in the quorum in respect of any shares upon which calls are due and unpaid.

Clause 87 - Time for objection

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

14. STATUTORY AND OTHER INFORMATION (Cont'd)

Clause 91 - Power of attorney

Every power, right or privilege herein given in these presents to any Member of the Company to convene, attend, vote and in any way take part in any meeting of the Company, may be exercised in the event of such Member being out of Malaysia by any attorney, whether a Member of the Company or not, duly appointed by such Member for the purpose, by a power of attorney produced at the Office of the Company during business hours not less than two (2) clear days before the same is acted on and any vote given or thing done by such attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the Member giving such power of attorney or revocation of such power of attorney by other means provided no intimation in writing of such death or revocation shall have been received at the Office of the Company before such vote is given or thing done.

Clause 92 - Validity of vote given under proxy

A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or attorney or authority shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal or revocation of the instrument or proxy or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument of proxy is given, if no intimation in writing of such death, unsoundness of mind, revocation or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or in the case of a poll before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, at which the instrument of proxy is used.

Clause 93 – Corporate Representative

A corporation may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body, if it is a Member of the Company, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative either at a particular meeting or at all meetings of the Company or of any class of Members and a person so authorised shall in accordance with his authority and until his authority is revoked by the corporation, be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member of the Company.
